FDA Inspection Operations Manual, 1990 Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Point Generic Models for Some Traditional Foods Who Regional Office for the Eastern Mediterranean, 2010-01-18 This Manual is intended to help producers regulators trainers and others concerned with the safety of traditional foods in the Eastern Mediterranean Region and may be used as material for training in food hygiene and the HACCP system as well as the basis for the development of food safety programs It is expected that most producers of the foods covered in this manual will have little or no knowledge of the HACCP system

so to expect them to implement the relevant models alone would not be realistic. Rather, governmental or nongovernmental agencies engaged in health food control or safety of the environment will need to help groups of producers in implementing the models in their plants. This manual covers just a few of the many traditional foods of the Region. It is hoped that those countries will develop and share generic HACCP models for other traditional foods in the Region so that a second edition can follow.

Making the Most of Haccp T Mayes, S Mortimore, 2001-05-17. The Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Point HACCP system has now become generally accepted as the key safety management system for the food industry worldwide. Whilst there are numerous publications on its principles and methods of implementation, there are relatively few on the experience of those who have actually implemented HACCP systems in practice and what can be learnt from that experience. Edited by two leading authorities on the subject and with an international team of contributors, Making the most of HACCP describes that experience and what it can teach about implementing and developing HACCP systems effectively.
