

THANKS

for ALL that you did today in your classroom...

For making a million little split second

DECISIONS for the benefit of your students.

For putting your own needs on hold and keeping them the FOCUS of your day.

For PLANNING for them long before today

ever got rolling.

For CHANGING those plans because they didn't fit someone who needed a little extra.

For smiling, LAUGHING WITH THEM and reassuring their efforts, trials and mistakes.

For placing your hand on a shoulder that was EXACTLY what someone needed.

For getting down on the physical level of your students because IT MATTERS.

For thinking of a new way to reach someone who wasn't getting it.

You matter.

Yes — YOU MATTER.

Teacher Appreciation Poems For Special Needs Kids:

Serving Special Needs Students in the School Library Media Center Margaret Keefe, Robert King, 1995-05-30

School library media specialists are now considered part of the teaching staff and are charged with integrating their library and information skills curriculum with the more general classroom curriculum At the same time more and more special needs students are part of every school and every classroom Thus the media specialist must work effectively with special needs students on a regular basis to develop their information skills and must also serve as a resource to classroom teachers This professional reference offers practical information to school library media specialists on how to serve special needs students and their classroom teachers effectively The first part of the book highlights the teaching role of the media specialist and discusses how and what to teach special needs students The second part views the media specialist as an information expert who must structure the library and its resources for students with special needs The third section treats the media specialist's role as a professional who must collaborate with other teachers

A Poetry Teacher's Toolkit Collette Drifte, Mike Jubb, 2013-12-16 Professional poets spend many hours crafting a finished piece of work yet we expect children in school to sit down and write when they are told to whether they feel inspired or not This series of four books is a toolkit to help you build a positive framework for children to read write understand and enjoy poetry to bring a creative spark to the poetry classroom A combination of featured poems creative ideas structured lesson plans and differentiated photocopiable activity sheets gives the series a uniquely flexible approach which means you can use the materials in any classroom context If you're wary of poetry if you think it's boring or if you're nervous about teaching poetry then you've chosen the right book Key themes covered in BOOK 2 Rhymes Rhythms and Rattles are rhythm and rhyme in poetry sounds alliteration words to create effects onomatopoeia and metaphor and simile Other books in the series are BOOK 1 Words and Wordplay BOOK 3 Style Shape and Structure and BOOK 4 Language and Performance

Al-Hroub, Sally Reis, Joseph Madaus, Itab Shuayb, 2024-04-26 There is evidence that the global COVID 19 crisis is exacerbating existing inequalities and marginalization of vulnerable groups including exceptional learners stateless street migrant and refugee children and youths and the limited use of frameworks of emergency planning with and for marginalized and at risk individuals These challenges are multi sectoral and intersecting and they require multi and interdisciplinary interventions to inform inclusive responses These issues include being at a greater risk of excluding vulnerable learners from gaining access to equitable education online remote and blended education Intersecting forms of discrimination such as gender socioeconomic and legal status further exacerbate the problem This has alerted us to examine the living conditions of marginalized and vulnerable populations around the globe and to reveal their experiences problems and needs from an educational perspective thus bringing insights into their vulnerabilities during the pandemic
