Nuances of Blackness in the Canadian Academy Awad Ibrahim, Tamari Kitossa, Malinda S. Smith, Handel Kashope Wright, 2022-02-02 The essays in Nuances of Blackness in the Canadian Academy make visible the submerged stories of Black life in academia They offer fresh historical social and cultural insights into what it means to teach learn research and work while Black In daring to shift from margin to centre the book s contributors confront two overlapping themes First they resist a singular construction of Blackness that masks the nuances and multiplicity of what it means to be and experience the academy as Black people Second they challenge the stubborn durability of anti Black tropes the dehumanization of Blackness persistent deficit ideologies and the tyranny of low expectations that permeate the dominant idea of Blackness in the white colonial imagination Operating at the intersections of discourse and experience contributors reflect on how Blackness shapes academic pathways ignites complicated and often difficult conversations and reimagines Black pasts presents and futures This unique collection contributes to the articulation of more nuanced understandings of the ways in which Blackness is made unmade and remade in the academy and the implications for interrelated dynamics across and within post secondary education Black communities in Canada and global Black diasporas

Successful Campus Outreach for Academic Libraries Peggy Keeran, Carrie Forbes, 2018-09-22 In Successful Campus Outreach for Academic Libraries Building Community Through Collaboration Peggy Keeran and Carrie Forbes bring together a variety of ways academic libraries are engaging with their communities through outreach with creativity and the spirit of collaboration as major themes throughout As a compendium of best practices it serves as a resource for academic librarians to discover new programming ideas to learn principles of effective marketing and to help them think strategically and programmatically about outreach activities of all types Topics are presented in four sections

Strategic Vision and Planning Developing and Implementing Successful Programs Community Outreach The Academic Library in the Community Broadening Library Outreach Audiences Practitioners designing outreach programs and activities will benefit from learning about a diverse set of outreach practices from libraries Occupational Outlook Handbook, 2006 Describes 250 occupations which cover approximately 107 million jobs Preparing for College and University Teaching Joanna Gilmore, Molly Hatcher, 2023-07-03 This book is a guide for designing professional development programs for graduate students The teaching competencies framework presented here can serve as the intended curriculum for such programs The book will also be an excellent resource for evaluating programs and will be an excellent resource for academics who study graduate students This book presents the work of the Graduate Teaching Competencies Consortium to identify organize and clarify the competencies that graduate students need to teach effectively when they join the professoriate To achieve this goal the Consortium developed a framework of 10 teaching competencies organized around three overarching questions What do graduate students need to achieve by the end of their graduate education to be successful teacher scholars What do graduate students need to understand about higher education to have successful careers as educators What do graduate students need to do to be successful teachers during their graduate student careers Although much work has been done to identify the competencies of effective teachers in higher education only a small portion of this work has been conducted with graduate student instructors This is an important area of research given that graduate students are critical in the higher education academic pipeline Nationally graduate students teach between 25% and 50% of courses offered at the undergraduate level Graduate student teaching is also critical because during early teaching experiences teachers establish a teaching style and set of teaching skills which will endure as graduate students enter the professoriate It is important to develop a teaching competency framework that is specific to graduate student instructors as they often have unique needs and roles as teachers For example graduate student instructors are in the unique position of becoming experts in their field concurrent with learning to teach Moreover as many professional development programs for graduate student instructors evolve based upon factors such as available resources and perceived needs of graduate students this framework will be a useful aid for thoughtfully designing strategic evidence based comprehensive professional development opportunities and programs The Handbook for Nursing Associates and Assistant Practitioners Gillian Rowe, Scott Ellis, Deborah Gee, Kevin Graham, Michelle Henderson, Janette Barnes, Chris Counihan, Ami Jackson, Jade Carter-Bennett, 2022-11-17 The essential handbook for trainee nursing associates and anyone undertaking a foundation degree or higher level apprenticeship in healthcare practice This bestselling book will see you through all aspects of your programme from the skills and knowledge you need to get started through to more advanced topics such as leadership and pathophysiology Covering all of the topics you will study in clear straightforward language it builds your confidence and competence as an effective healthcare professional Key features Mapped to the 2018 NMC Standards and other relevant healthcare codes and standards New chapter on medicines management Filled with case studies scenarios and activities illustrating theory in real life practice OECD Reviews of School Resources: Czech Republic 2016 Shewbridge Claire, Herczyński Jan, Radinger Thomas, Sonnemann Julie, 2016-10-19 The effective use of school resources is a policy priority across OECD countries The OECD Reviews of School Resources explore how resources can be governed distributed utilised and managed to improve the quality equity and efficiency of school education Canadian Almanac & Directory, 2015 Tannys Williams, 2014-10 The Canadian Almanac Directory is the most complete source of Canadian information available cultural professional and financial institutions legislative governmental judicial and educational organizations Canada s authoritative sourcebook for al A Little Respect? Kristof De Witte, Oliver Holz, Lotte Geunis, 2022 Discrimination against the LGBT community persists across Europe Education is not immune to this Young people across the continent continue to experience homophobic and transphobic behaviour in schools This publication provides education practitioners and policy makers with historical perspectives trends in educational practice and reflections on desiderata for the future This publication was developed as part of the All Inc project an ERASMUS KA2 partnership 2020 2023 funded by the European Commission and implemented by 16 educational institutions in Belgium Germany Greece Hungary the Netherlands Poland the United Kingdom and Spain The project s core aim is to encourage awareness understanding and inclusion of the LGBT community within and beyond the school gates as well as to reflect on what is needed in the future for an educational approach that is fit for purpose in contemporary society Recognition of the Rights of Domestic Workers in India Upasana Mahanta, Indranath Gupta, 2019-08-08 This book brings together a set of contributions that examine the complexities associated with domestic work by highlighting not only the legal issues but also exploring the social psycho social economic and cultural dimensions of domestic work The book aims to ignite a collective effort towards ensuring decent work for domestic workers and facilitate a public debate on their rights It includes discussions on the issue of social justice with special emphasis on invisibilization and undervaluation of domestic work feminization of domestic work and recognizes the rights of domestic workers as human rights The issues covered in this book bridge the gap between legal and social dimensions of domestic work and address the discrimination faced by domestic workers in a holistic manner Given its scope the book would appeal to both academics law as well as social science and non academics It will be a useful tool for teachers students practitioners policy makers and civil society organizations working for the unorganized sector Teacher Education in Challenging Times Philip Bamber, Jane Moore, 2016-07-15 Teacher education is experiencing a period of dramatic and arguably irrevocable change within a wider context of turbulence in the English education system With contributions from a range of teacher educators and academics in the field Teacher Education in Challenging Times presents sustainable robust and informed responses to the challenges posed by the current unrest in the education sector This book considers the nature of teacher professionalism the nurturing of truly collaborative partnerships between universities schools and other agencies and developments in practice with tangible impact for children and young people Drawing on important research and illustrations of policy and practice from England and other countries chapters present a series of counter cultural ideas principles and practices that respond to pressing challenges facing educators in a range of contexts Positive and forward looking this book offers a robust defence of the present need for high quality teacher education in challenging times This book is a timely contribution to an international debate about the future of teacher educators and should be of key interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of teacher education philosophy and sociology of education policy and politics of education and pedagogy It will also appeal to a range of practitioners including trainers local authority officers professional groups educational service providers and educational and school improvement consultants
