NORTHWEST ORDINANCE OF 1787

The Northwest Ordinance was adopted by the Confederation Congress on July 13, 1787. The final agreement suggested that three to five new states be created from the Northwest Territory, separating the United States into the Great Lakes area. The ordinance also proposed:

- Each territory will be given its own government with an appointed governor and judges. When it reached 3,000 residents, they could elect their own assembly keeping the governor with complete veto power.
- There will be a process for admitting new states into the Union. When the population reached 60,000, the territory could draft a constitution and petition for full statehood.
- New states will be treated the same as the original thirteen states.
- Civil liberties will be protected.
- Public education will be provided.
- Slavery will not be permitted in the territories.

Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio and Wisconsin were formed from this agreement.
