Women Taking Risks in Contemporary Autobiographical Narratives Kenneth Reeds, Anna Rocca, 2013-10-03 Women Taking Risks in Contemporary Autobiographical Narratives explores the nature and effects of risk in self narrative representations of life events and is an early step towards confronting the dearth of analysis on this subject The collection focuses on risk taking as one of women's articulations of authorial agency displayed in literary testimonial photographic travel and film documentary forms of autobiographical expression in French Among many themes the book fosters discussion on matters of courage strength resilience freedom self fulfillment political engagement compassion faith and the envisioning of unconventional alliances that follow a woman's stepping out of her comfort zone The fourteen essays included in this collection discuss works of women authors from North Africa Sub Saharan Africa France and the Caribbean They exemplify a variety of self narratives that blur unified conceptualizations of both identity and national belonging They address questions about women writers attitudes towards risk and their willingness to change the status quo They also explore the many personal and public forms in which agency manifests through risk taking engagements the ways in which women challenge the conventional wisdom about feminine reserve and aversion to danger the multiplicity of seen and unforeseen consequences of risk taking the all too frequent lack of recognition of female courage the overcoming of obstacles by taking risks and frequently the amelioration of women's lives Addressing both the broader context of the study of risk and the more specific areas of female expression and autobiography in Francophone cultures this collection is attractive to a diverse audience with the potential to cross disciplines and inform a wide body of research A number of the essays deal with issues born in postcolonial circumstances This examination of the elucidation of marginalized voices should prove enlightening to an array of scholars researching specific ethnic sexual gender and general subjects related to identity In making inroads towards expanding the well developed area of risk studies into the humanities this collection makes an important contribution that has the potential to promote a variety of cross disciplinary research including examinations of the psychology and sociology behind chauvinism personal expression and formative experiences

 War,Women's Human Rights Center,2020-08-24 What would it be like if your existence was erased for half a century This is the reality for the Korean comfort girls women whose lives had been erased since the time of the expansion of comfort stations by the Japanese military in 1937 This book is an effort to bring these women back to life and to make their voices experiences and memories available to future generations The experiences of Korean comfort girls women are a paradigmatic example of how military sexual violence can obliterate the dignity of women and shame them into nonexistence This book examines how the turning of their innocence into inadequacy actively by the Japanese government and passively by the Korean government and its people and also by the world compounded their long miserable suffering for half a century until Kim Hak sun broke the silence in 1991 with the support of Korean activists The relentless and courageous efforts of Korean comfort girls women and activists on the road to healing and justice are shared here These efforts made it possible for us to hear their horrific stories which are embedded with numerous and intense traumas allowing them to unfold and be

 Sexual Politics explores the topics of beauty self esteem and sexual attraction among Asian Americans The book draws on sixty in depth interviews to show how constructions of Asian American gender and sexuality tend to reinforce the social and political dominance for whites particularly white males even in the supposed post racial United States Drawing on established scholarship on the intersection of race gender and sexuality Asian American Sexual Politics shows how power dynamics shape the lives of young Asian Americans today Asian American women are often constructed as hyper sexual docile bodies while Asian American men are often racially castrated The book s interview excerpts show the range of frames through which Asian Americans approach the world as well as the counter frames they construct In the final chapter author Rosalind S Chou offers strategies for countering racialized and sexualized oppression This provocative book shows how persistent racism affects Asian American body image self esteem and intimate relationships Trust Me, I'm Lying Ryan Holiday, 2013-07-02 The cult classic that predicted the rise of fake news revised and updated for the post Trump post Gawker age Hailed as astonishing and disturbing by the Financial Times and essential reading by TechCrunch at its original publication former American Apparel marketing director Ryan Holiday s first book sounded a prescient alarm about the dangers of fake news It s all the more relevant today Trust Me I m Lying was the first book to blow the lid off the speed and force at which rumors travel online and get traded up the media ecosystem until they become real headlines and generate real responses in the real world The culprit Marketers and professional media manipulators encouraged by the toxic economics of the news business Whenever you see a malicious online rumor costs a company millions politically motivated fake news driving elections a product or celebrity zooming from total obscurity to viral sensation or anonymously sourced articles becoming national conversation someone is behind it Often someone like Ryan Holiday As he explains I wrote this book to explain how media manipulators work how to spot their fingerprints how to fight them and how if you must to emulate their tactics Why am I giving away these secrets Because I m tired of a world where trolls hijack debates marketers help write the news opinion masquerades as fact algorithms drive everything to extremes and no one is accountable for any of it I m pulling back the curtain because it s time the public understands how things really work What you choose to do with this information is up to you
