Effective Teaching in Correctional Settings Robert G. Thomas,Murray Thomas,2008 This book has a dual purpose to identify problems faced by people who teach in correctional institutions and to propose solutions for those problems The intent of this book is to help both new instructors as well as current ones perform their jobs effectively The book is divided into three parts The first part introduces the reader to the field of correctional education describing correctional efforts in America the kinds of facilities the inmate populations and the controversies including advocates and critics over providing educational opportunities A description is provided on the

Mortal Dilemmas Donald Joralemon,2016-06-16 Anthropologist Donald Joralemon asks whether America is really as many scholars claim a death denying culture that prefers to quarantine the sick in hospitals and the elderly in nursing homes His answer is a reasoned no In his view Americans are merely struggling to find cultural scripts for the exceptional conditions of dying that our social world and medical technologies have thrust upon us The book is written in the first person for a broad audience by a senior anthropologist making it an authoritative yet accessible textbook for courses on death and dying and American culture includes contemporary debates about highly visible cases the definition of death the status of human remains aging and the medicalization of grief demonstrates persuasively that arguments over death and dying are in fact arguments about what it means to be human in modern America Cradling the Chrysalis Mary MacCallum Sullivan, Harriett Goldenberg, 2018-05-16

This book addresses the ethical and philosophical basis for the teaching learning involved in becoming a psychotherapist How can training prepare prospective psychotherapists counsellors and counselling psychologists for a task whose practitioners cannot even agree as to whether it is an art or a science an impersonal clinical interaction or a profoundly humane even spiritual encounter The authors believe they share with their students a passion about the possibilities inherent in this particular kind of conversation Such a meeting demands a fully personal engagement and a profoundly ethical attitude towards the relationship with the Other it is also potentially an important beginning in repairing the world The book explores the relative importance and emphasis of the structure content and process of psychotherapy training Its thesis is that the teaching learning takes place in the quality of the reciprocal meeting between the teacher and the learner Sociological Imaginations from the Classroom Plus A Symposium on the Sociology of Science Perspectives on the Malfunctions of Science and Peer Reviewing Mohammad H. Tamdgidi, Anna D. Beckwith, 2008-03-01

This Spring 2008 VI 2 issue of Human Architecture Journal of the Sociology of Self Knowledge includes two symposium papers by Klaus Fischer and Lutz Bornmann who shed significant light on why the taken for granted structures of science and peer reviewing have been and need to be problematized in favor of more liberatory scientific and peer reviewing practices more conducive to advancing the sociological imagination The student papers included by Jacquelyn Knoblock Henry Mubiru David Couras Dima Khurin Kathleen O'Brien Nicole Jones Nicole pen name Eric Reed Joel Bartlett Stacey Melchin Laura Zuzevich Michelle Tanney Lora Aurise and Brian Ahl make serious efforts at developing their theoretically informed sociological imagination of gender race ethnicity learning adolescence and work The volume also includes papers by faculty Satoshi Ikeda Karen Gagne Leila Farsakh who self reflectively explore their own life and pedagogical strategies for the cultivation of sociological imaginations regardless of the disciplinary field in which they do research and teach Two joint student faculty papers and essays Khau Pithouse and Mason Powers Schaefer also imaginatively and innovatively explore their own or what seem at first to be strangers lives in order to develop a more empathetic and pedagogically healing sociological imaginations for their authors and subjects The journal editor Mohammad H Tamdgidi's call in his note for sociological re imaginations of science and peer reviewing draws on the relevance of both the symposium and other student and faculty papers in the volume to one another in terms of fostering in theory and practice liberating peer reviewing strategies in academic publishing Anna Beckwith was a guest co editor of this journal issue Human Architecture Journal of the Sociology of Self Knowledge is a publication of OKCIR The Omar Khayyam Center for Integrative Research in Utopia Mysticism and Science Utopistics For more information about Morals under the Gun James H. Toner, 2021-10-21 James Toner argues that the cardinal virtues are and must be the core values of the military By embracing these values the profession of arms serves as a moral compass in an increasingly confusing age Building upon a bold introduction which includes what many will regard as a surprising view of military ethics Toner examines the four cardinal virtues wisdom courage temperance and justice and places each in the context of a compelling case study from recent U S

military history He discusses the Flinn Case the Lavelle Affair a B 52 crash in Washington State and the courageous actions of Hugh Thompson after My Lai Morals Under the Gun connects ethics and moral theology with the armed services demonstrating that the task of preserving virtue both personal and professional is a noble if imperfectible task
