The International Student's Guide to Writing a Research Paper Janine Carlock, Maeve Eberhardt, Jaime Horst, Peter Kolenich, 2017-06-13 The International Student's Guide to Writing a Research Paper is a reference text for undergraduate students and those in ESL or bridge courses who are writing a research paper for the first time This book is partly an update of Writing a Research Paper by Lionel Menasche 1998 and partly a companion to The ESL Writer's Handbook Each section of the book includes a discrete task called a Building Block which requires students to apply the skills learned toward the development of their own paper This step by step approach allows students to construct knowledge as they become more familiar with the process making writing a research paper a less intimidating task Special features This guide uses simple direct language for those for whom writing a research paper is new Most example writing is from international students in an ESL program or first year writing class including two sample papers one in APA and one in MLA A section on responding to instructor feedback to provide students with the tools to read and understand comments and use them to improve the first draft A subsection dedicated to constructing clear and cohesive paragraphs and sentences The guide includes citation and style examples in MLA 8th edition

Writing with Deleuze in the Academy Stewart Riddle, David Bright, Eileen Honan, 2018-09-25 In this book authors working with Deleuzian theories in educational research in Australia and the United Kingdom grapple with how the academic writing machine might become less contained and bounded and instead be used to free impulses to generate different creations and connections The authors experiment with forms of writing that challenge the boundaries of academic language moving beyond the strictures of the scientific method that governs and controls what works and what counts to make language vibrate with a new intensity The authors construct monstrous creations full of vitality and fervor hybrid texts part academic part creative assemblages almost but perhaps not quite recognisable as research Stories that blur the lines between true and untrue re presentation and invention The contributors to this book hope that something might happen in its reading that some new connections might be made but also acknowledge the contingency of the encounter between text and reader and the impossibility of presuming to know what may be Nkrumah and the West Matteo Landricina,2018 The developmental years of Ghana the first state to become independent from colonialism in sub Saharan Africa in 1957 were marked by the United Kingdom s effort to showcase its former colony as a model of successful democracy export for the rest of Black Africa They called it the Ghana Experiment Major Western powers like the United States and West Germany participated in the attempt to keep Ghana aligned with the West As Ghana s President Kwame Nkrumah embarked on a bold anti imperialistic pan African policy Britain and the United States concerted a common strategy which accelerated Nkrumah s eventual downfall in 1966 and brought Ghana back into the Western sphere of influence A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, Eighth Edition Kate L.
