

From The University of Texas at Austin Scoring Center

These hints were prepared by the actual readers who score the GED essay for Texas and other states. These hints are designed to help GED candidates prepare for the essay portion of the Writing Skills test.

GED readers read holistically for an overall impression of your essay. Do you have a clear focus on the idea about which you are writing? Have you organized your thoughts about this idea? Have you provided some specific details about this idea? Readers do not expect your essay to be perfect because 45 minutes is simply not enough time to produce an error-free piece of writing. As long as the reader can understand what you are saying, an occasional error in spelling or grammar will not lower your score.

At The Test

Make sure you:

DO use a ballpoint pen.

DO listen to all instructions from the person who administers the test. Carefully read the topic in your test booklet.

DO take time to brainstorm the topic before you begin writing. Jot down notes or a web diagram to help you focus and organize your thoughts. Consider specific details you might add to extend your ideas and create a more complete picture for the reader.

DO you have personal experiences that you could use? If not, always remember that you can use your imagination to create a connection to this topic.

DO plan your essay. You should take time to organize your ideas. This will help you keep your ideas organized in paragraphs and should help remind you to provide enough examples, illustrations, explanations, etc.

DO develop your ideas fully. If you can only think of one or two ideas, provide specific examples and explanation. It is better to illustrate one or two points fully than to give a sketchy list of reasons with little support.

DO think of the essay as a conversation with your reader. Think of what you would say to someone if you were talking about the topic. Try to think about any questions your "conversation partner" might like answered. In a conversation you talk freely and supply plenty of details; you should do that in writing too.
