Excerpt from d104 Book of Medical Jurisprudence and Toxicology This d104 book has been written more particularly to meet the wants of students of Legal Medicine The author is aware that the field has already been occupied by able and popular treatises on medical jurisprudence well known to the professions of medicine and law but an experience of over twenty years as a public teacher of this branch of science has convinced him that students in both these professions who desire to acquire a knowledge of medical jurisprudence are too often deterred from their purpose by being confronted by the ponderous works of recognized masters extending to three and even six large octavo volumes About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
