Text Complexity Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, Diane Lapp, 2016-01-28 There is a big difference between assigning complex texts and teaching complex texts Doug Fisher Nancy Frey and Diane Lapp And that s the crux isn t it That s why in this brand new edition of the bestselling Text Complexity the renowned author team provide four new chapters that lay open the instructional routines that take students to new places as readers No matter what discipline you teach you will learn how to craft purposeful instruction pitched to your readers comprehension capacities your curriculum s themes and your own assessments on what students need next Doug Nancy and Diane provide How to s for measuring word and sentence length and other countable features of any written work while giving ample consideration to the readers in your room and how their background knowledge experiences and motivations come into play A rubric for analyzing literary texts for plot structure point of view imagery clarity and more and a complexity scale for analyzing informational texts that describe inform and explain Classroom scenarios of teachers and students engaging with fiction and nonfiction texts that provide enough of a stretch so you ll know the difference between a healthy struggle and frustration The authors latest thinking on routines that invite students to interact with complex texts and with one another including teacher modeling close reading scaffolded small group reading and independent reading It s time to see text complexity as a dynamic powerful tool for sliding the right text in front of our students at just the right time Think of this second edition as Text Complexity 2 Go because it s all about the movement of minds at work going deeper than anyone ever thought possible

TDQs: Strategies for Building Text-Dependent Questions Hathaway, Jessica, 2017-03-01 Use effective questions across all grade levels to improve comprehension This innovative resource provides teachers with the tools needed to effectively instruct using text dependent questions It contains current research and sample text dependent questions and prompts to aide teachers in creating high quality questions for any piece of literary or informational text Sample reading passages and student resources provide an excellent guide for teachers in creating their own questions or for students as they practice using evidence from the text to support and verify their responses and build deeper comprehension as called for in today's standards Get the Picture: Visual Literacy in Content-Area Instruction Marva Cappello, Nancy T. Walker, 2019-07-01 Visual sources are increasingly prevalent in today's society. This cross-curricular resource by Marva Cappello and Nancy T. Walker provides teachers with new and engaging strategies to help students closely read visual texts. Teachers will learn to evaluate the complexity of visual texts and match them to their students. Students will learn to analyze visual sources, understand both explicit and implicit messages, interpret underlying meaning, and engage in meaningful discussion. Based on practical research, this approach offers students engagement in the full suite of Language Arts as defined by the International Literacy Association and National Council of Teachers of English: reading, writing, listening, speaking, viewing, and visually representing. The strategies are divided by purpose: receptive and productive strategies, and arranged by content area to support all teachers. Sample lessons for grades K-1 and 2-3 are provided for each strategy. With concrete tools and techniques and a wide range of suggested visual texts to use in the classroom, teachers can prepare students for interaction with primary sources, digital media, and the visual-heavy world of 21st-century learning. Digital downloads of visual texts and student pages are included.

This Is Balanced Literacy, Grades K-6 Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, Nancy Akhavan, 2019-08-26 This is Balanced Literacy, Grades K-6. Students learn to read and write best when their teachers balance literacy instruction. But how do you strike the right balance of skills and knowledge, reading and writing, small and whole group instruction, and direct and dialogic instruction so that all students can learn to their maximum potential? The answer lies in the intentional design of learning activities, purposeful selection of instructional materials, evidence-based teaching methods, and in strategic groupings of students based on assessment data. Together, these create the perfect balance of high-impact learning experiences that engage and excite learners. In this hands-on essential guide, best-selling authors Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, and Nancy Akhavan help you define that balance for your students, lighting the path to implementing balanced literacy in your classroom. Their plan empowers you to integrate evidence-based approaches that include instructional materials comprised of both informational and narrative texts. The best uses of instructional delivery modes, including direct and dialogic instruction, grouping patterns that work best to accomplish learning aims for different learners at different stages, instruction in foundational skills and meaning-making, including oral language, phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, comprehension, and writing. Technology used as a tool for increasing learning of a specific literary process. All the tips and tools you need to realize the goal of balanced literacy learning are included, with classroom videos that show strategies in action. Tap your intuition, collaborate with your peers, and put the research-based strategies embedded in this roadmap to work in your classroom to implement or deepen a strong, successful balanced literacy program. Grow as a reading and writing teacher while leading your students to grow as readers and writers.
