

Study Guides

Study Guides are developed based on a required textbook and serve as a guide for the course material. Each Study Guide will contain a:

Course syllabus, learning objectives, resources, pre-tests, self-tests, case studies, key words, chapter overviews and summaries designed to help you master the course material.

To measure your learning, you will complete a combination of multiple choice examinations and writing assignments.

Upon completion of the examinations and writing assignments, you will be provided feedback to show you how you've done.
