The Faith Brian Moynahan, 2003-10-21 Beginning with the birth of Jesus and tracing the religion established by his followers up to the present day The Faith is a comprehensive exploration of the history of Christianity Judiciously covering all the signal moments without bogging down in minutia author Brian Moynahan s superbly written and generously illustrated book is of central importance to Christians historians and anyone interested in a faith that shaped the modern world Moynahan s research uses little known sources to tell a magnificent story encompassing everything from the early tremulous years after Jesus death to the horrors of persecution by Nero from the growth of monasteries to the bloody Crusades from the building of the great cathedrals to the cataclysm of the Reformation and the Catholic Counter Reformation from the flight of pilgrims from Europe in pursuit of religious freedom to the Salem Witch Trials from the advent of a traveling pope to the rise of televangelists Coming just in time for Jubilee 2000 this ambitious book reveals and commemorates the significance of the Christian faith Techniques in Painting Brigid Marlin,2022-08-18 A How to book featuring painting techniques used by Dutch Renaissance Masters such as Rembrandt and Rubens Bruegel and Bosch This beautifully illustrated book for practising artists and art students examines everything there is to know about the techniques used by the Dutch Masters of the Golden Age From the preparation of surfaces and the creation of paints and pigments to the methods used award winning artist Brigid Marlin considers how these skills can work in modern settings and includes stunning representations of contemporary artists work Discover the techniques and materials used by Rembrandt in his portraits how to achieve balance and tension rhythm and points of interest in the style of Bruegel and Rubens and how to recreate luminous still life paintings like those of the Van Eyck brothers Projects include clear step by step demonstrations to replicate these almost forgotten techniques as well as examples of works which they inspired Northrop Frye's Canadian Literary Criticism and Its Influence Branko Gorjup,2009-01-01 Northrop Frye s Canadian Literary Criticism examines the impact of Frye s criticism on Canadian literary scholarship as well as the response of Frye s peers to his articulation of a Canadian criticism Leonardo and the Last Supper Ross King,2012-01-01 Milan 1496 and forty four year old Leonardo da Vinci has a reputation for taking on commissions and failing to complete them He is in a state of professional uncertainty and financial difficulty For eighteen months he has been painting murals in both the Sforza Castle in Milan and the refectory of the convent of Santa Maria delle Grazie The latter project will become the Last Supper a complex mural that took a full three years to complete on a surface fifteen feet high by twenty feet wide Not only had he never attempted a painting of such size but he had no experience whatsoever in painting in the physically demanding medium of fresco For more than five centuries the Last Supper has been an artistic religious and cultural icon The art historian Kenneth Clark has called it the keystone of European art and for a century after its creation it was regarded as nothing less than a miraculous image Even today according to Clark we regard the painting as more a work of nature than a work of man And yet there is a very human story behind this artistic miracle which was created against the backdrop of momentous events both in Milan and in the life of Leonardo himself In Leonardo and the Last Supper Ross King tells the complete story of this creation of this mural the adversities suffered by the artist during its execution the experimental techniques he employed the models for Christ and the Apostles that he used and the numerous personalities involved everyone from the Leonardo's young assistants to Ludovico Sforza the Duke of Milan who commissioned the work Ross King's new book is both a record of Leonardo da Vinci's last five years in Milan and a biography of one of the most famous works of art ever painted Acrylic Painting Wendon Blake, 1997-01-01 Comprehensive and richly illustrated survey by noted artist and teacher introduces acrylic colors and their characteristics discusses painting surfaces and how to prepare them lists painting tools and their performance and much more Step by step instructions and technical exercises for experimenting with major methods among them opaque transparent watercolor acrylic tempera mixed media and others 125 halftones 32 color illus Charles Reade Reade, 1895
