The New York Times Jewish Cookbook Linda Amster, 2003-09-15 Publisher Description

Kitchen Arabic Joseph Geha, 2023-03-15 Immigrant children first speak the language of their mothers and in Toledo Ohio's Little Syria neighborhood where Joseph Geha grew up the first place he would go to find his mother would be the kitchen Many of today's immigrants use Skype to keep in touch with folks back in the old country but in those radio days of old before the luxuries of hot running water or freezers much less refrigeration blenders or microwaves the kitchen was where an immigrant mother usually had to be snapping peas or rolling grape leaves while she waited for the dough to rise There Geha's mother took special pride in the traditional Syro Lebanese food she cooked such as stuffed eggplant lentil soup kibbeh with tahini sauce shish barak and fragrant sesame cookies As much a memoir as a cookbook Kitchen Arabic illustrates the journey of Geha's early years in America and his family's struggle to learn the language and ways of a new world A compilation of family recipes and of the stories that came with them it deftly blends culture with cuisine In her kitchen Geha's mother took special pride in the Arabic dishes she cooked cherishing that aspect of her heritage that unlike language has changed very little over time and distance With this book Geha shares how the food of his heritage sustained his family throughout that cultural journey speaking to them in a language that needs no translation of joy and comfort and love     The Complete Idiot's Guide to Grilling Barbara Grunes, Virginia Van Vynckt, 1999 Explains how to prepare all sorts of food on the grill including steaks burgers chicken lamb fish and vegetables
