Teacher Education in Turmoil Rajendra Pal Singh, Gopal Rana, 2002-01-01 Contributed articles Quality Enhancement in Madrasa Education K. Mohammed Basheer, 2016-12-14 This unique empirical study focuses on the different quality dimensions of the Madrasa education system in Kerala southwestern India. Madrasa education is one of the largest networks of non-governmental organisations (NGOs) in the world. Despite originating several centuries ago in a vastly different social and cultural context, it continues to address the educational needs of a large section of the Muslim population in India. Although the Madrasa system has seen many significant developments over time, academia has not paid much attention to its functions, strengths and contributions. This study fills this lacuna and is grounded in detailed empirical investigation based on ethnographic surveys and interviews with various stakeholders from the field comprising students, teachers, parents, management committees, Madrasa boards and educationists. It critically examines the existing Madrasa education system in terms of different quality dimensions including curriculum planning and designing, curriculum transaction, assessment and evaluation, institutional management and infrastructure. While appreciating the contributions of Madrasas in promoting education among the Muslim minority of India, the book also identifies their problems and suggests creative modalities. A timely contribution to a subject with great international appeal, it will be of great interest to policy planners, researchers, educators, students and scholars of formal and informal education, minority studies, political Islam, Middle East and Asian studies, sociology, history and contemporary studies. Centres of Islamic Learning in India Ziya-ud-Din A. Desai, 1978 World Peace And Islam Islamic Fiqh Academy, 2010-01-01 Reading with Allah Nilanjana Gupta, 2012-03-15 Based on extensive fieldwork and archival records, this book traces the emergence and flourishing of madrasas and the myriad ways in which they impact upon local Muslim communities, especially in West Bengal. It also addresses issues of identity, secular education and gender in this context while exploring the myths that surround these institutions. Amongst other things, it interrogates why Muslim communities prefer sending their sons to government schools to receive a secular education while the daughters are sent to madrasas. Faithful Education Ali Riaz, 2008-09-03 In the wake of the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001, discussions on ties between Islamic religious education institutions, namely madrasahs and transnational terrorist groups, have featured prominently in the Western media. In the frenzied coverage of events, however, vital questions have been overlooked. What do we know about the madrasahs? Should Western policymakers be alarmed by the recent increase in the number of these institutions in Muslim countries? Is there any connection between them and the global jihad? Ali Riaz responds to these questions through an in-depth examination of the madrasahs in Pakistan, Bangladesh and India. In Faithful Education, he examines these institutions and their roles in relation to current international politics. Shariah and the Halal Industry Mohammad Hashim Kamali, 2021-07-13 The rapid expansion of the halal industry and its markets has occurred not only in the heavily Islamic regions of Southeast Asia and the Middle East but also in more unexpected countries such as Turkey Japan and South Korea plus many others around the world Yet despite both the increasing number of practicing Muslims and the demand for halal products worldwide a base of scholarship on the subject has never emerged The industry has been more market driven rather than knowledge driven As such industry operators have frequently drawn attention to the absence of such an authoritative text one that would elucidate the shariah credibly of halal as well as its market presence Mohammad Hashim Kamali s Shariah and the Halal Industry is designed to fill this gap The first of its kind in the English language the book is written in an accessible and reader friendly style by a world renowned authority on Islamic law and jurisprudence The book serves as a reference on the shariah foundations of halal and meets the needs not only of industry operators and decision makers but also of students scholars of Islam and the many practicing Muslims who are customers of the halal industry across the globe The book can also serve to educate the general public and non specialist readers on Islam and shariah law at large Islam and the Modern Age
