follow up activities Literacy Beyond Picture Books Dorothy Dendy Smith, Jill Fisher DeMarco, Martha Worley, 2009-06-02 Teaching literacy to middle school and high school students with significant disabilities can prove challenging when available reading materials don't match students' reading levels and interests. This accessible step-by-step guide shows teachers how to match students with appropriate texts and develop inventive themed units that encourage literacy learning. The authors demonstrate how teachers can build whole units around a selected text by creating hands-on activities that engage multiple senses. This valuable resource includes sample activities and lesson plans, ideas for adapting general education materials, and essential information on how to build vocabulary and use retelling and guided reading. Teach functional skills on a daily basis. Incorporate media and assistive technology. Coordinate with general education teachers and involve parents. Assess students' learning and meet Individualized Education Plan goals. Perfect for special education and inclusive classrooms, this resource features everything teachers need to motivate students with disabilities and help them develop literacy skills. Book jacket Storytelling with Children Andrew Wright, Alan Maley, 2005-01-06 Exploits children's natural love of stories by using them to develop an awareness of the sound and feel of English and an understanding of language points. Presents a wide variety of ideas for using stories to teach English to children. Includes a selection of ready-to-tell stories, although the activities can be used with any story.
