Albert Capellani Christine Leteux, 2015-12-10 In recent years technology has given films of the silent era and their creators a second life as new processes have eased their restoration and distribution Among the films benefitting from these developments are the works of director Albert Capellani 1874 1931 whose oeuvre was instrumental in the development of cinema in the early 1900s and whose contributions rival those of D W Griffith For the first time in English Christine Leteux s essential biography of Capellani offers a detailed assessment of the groundbreaking director Capellani began his career in France at what was at the time the biggest film company in the world Path There he directed the first multireel version of Les Misérables in 1912 as well as his masterpiece Germinal 1913 After immigrating to the United States Capellani worked at a number of production houses including Metro Pictures Corporation where he produced his two best known films The House of Mirth 1918 and The Red Lantern 1919 He was well known for making stage actors into movie stars and Mistinguett Stacia Napierkowska and Alla Nazimova all rose to prominence under his direction The ups and downs of Capellani s career paralleled the evolution of the film industry and demonstrated the fickle nature of success His technical and aesthetic achievements however paved the way for future filmmakers Featuring a foreword by Academy Award winning film historian Kevin Brownlow Leteux s intimate biography paints a fascinating portrait of one of the leading pioneers of early cinema and provides a new window into the origins of the moving picture
