Valentinos Charalambous a Documentary Film , It's Not Personal Susan Best,2021-06-17 How does something as potent and evocative as the body become a relatively neutral artistic material From the 1960s much body art and performance conformed to the anti expressive ethos of minimalism and conceptualism whilst still using the compelling human form But how is this strange mismatch of vigour and impersonality able to transform the body into an expressive medium for visual art Focusing on renowned artists such as Lygia Clark Marina Abramovic and Angelica Mesiti Susan Best examines how bodies are configured in late modern and contemporary art She identifies three main ways in which they are used as material and argues that these formulations allow for the exposure of pressing social and psychological issues In skilfully aligning this new typology for body art and performance with critical theory she raises questions pertaining to gender inter subjectivity relation and community that continue to dominate both our artistic and cultural conversation

The Persistence of Dance Erin Brannigan, 2023-11-28 There is a category of choreographic practice with a lineage stretching back to mid 20th century North America that has re emerged since the early 1990s dance as a contemporary art medium Such work belongs as much to the gallery as does video art or sculpture and is distinct from both performance art and its history as well as from theater based dance The Persistence of Dance Choreography as Concept and Material in Contemporary Art clarifies the continuities and differences between the second wave dance avant garde in the 1950s 1970s and the third wave starting in the 1990s Through close readings of key artists such as Maria Hassabi Sarah Michelson Boris Charmatz Meg Stuart Philipp Gehmacher Adam Linder Agatha Gothe Snape Shelley Lasica and Latai Taumoepeau The Persistence of Dance traces the relationship between the third wave and gallery based work Looking at these artists highlights how the discussions and practices associated with conceptual dance resonate with the categories of conceptual and post conceptual art as well as with the critical work on the function of visual art categories Brannigan concludes that within the current post disciplinary context there is a persistence of dance and that a model of post dance exists that encompasses dance as a contemporary art medium Artists in the Archive Paul Clarke, Simon Jones, Nick Kaye, Johanna Linsley, 2018-06-13 Artists in the Archive explores the agency and materiality of the archival document through a stunning collection of critical writings and original artworks It examines the politics and philosophy behind re using remains historicising this artistic practice and considering the breadth of ways in which archival materials inform inflect and influence new works Taking a fresh look at the relationships between insider know how and outsider knowledge Artists in the Archive opens a vital dialogue between a global range of artists and scholars It seeks to trouble the distinction between artistic practice and scholarly research offering disciplinary perspectives from experimental theatre performance art choreography and dance to visual art making archiving and curating The Postconceptual Condition Peter Osborne, 2018-01-30 Tracking the postconceptual dimensions of contemporary art If as Walter Benjamin claimed it is the function of artistic form to make historical content into a philosophical truth then it is the function of criticism to recover and to complete that truth Contemporary art makes this work more difficult than ever Today's art is a point of condensation for a vast array of social and historical forces economic and political forms and technologies of image production Contemporary art Osborne maintains expresses this condition through its distinctively postconceptual form These essays extending the scope and arguments of Osborne's Anywhere or Not At All Philosophy of Contemporary Art move from a philosophical consideration of the changing temporal conditions of capitalist modernity via problems of formalism the politics of art and the changing shape of art institutions to interpretation and analysis of particular works by Akram Zaatari Xavier Le Roy and Ilya Kabakov and the postconceptual situation of a crisis ridden New Music Disordered Attention Claire Bishop, 2024-06-11 How technology and the politics of attention changed the way we look at art The ways we encounter contemporary art and performance has changed How are we expected to engage with today s diverse practice Is the old model of close looking still the ideal or has it given way to browsing skimming and sampling Across four provocative and insightful essays art historian and critic Claire Bishop identifies trends in contemporary practice Charting a critical path through the last three decades Bishop pinpoints how spectatorship and visual literacy are evolving under the pressures of digital technology She explores how researched based exhibitions have proliferated turning the artist into an investigator or archivist with mixed results Spatial performance can now involve the artist dancers or even the audience as participants often framed with Instagram in mind The political event is not longer activated without an understanding of the media that will record and distribute it The proliferation of works that use modernist architecture is noticeable but has this become a shorthand for something else Disordered Attention is a vital survey of 21st century art from one of the leading art thinkers of our times Curating the Contemporary in the Art Museum Malene Vest Hansen, Kristian Handberg, 2023-02-24 Curating the Contemporary in the Art Museum investigates the art museum as a space where the contemporary is staged in exhibitions collecting practices communication and policies Curating the Contemporary in the Art Museum traces the art museum back to the postwar era Including contributions by established and emerging art historians academics and curators the book proposes that the art museum is engaged in the contemporary in a double sense it re presents contemporary art while the contemporary condition itself also has a significant impact on art and the museum that houses it Presenting a diverse range of international cases of exhibitions and curatorial practices which hail primarily from Europe and Scandinavia the essays examine the politics of staging national international and global framings of modernism as well as the new public spaces shaped in digital practices and changing political frameworks The book investigates both the seminal and the unknown exhibitions and institutions that created contemporary art as we know it today Curating the Contemporary in the Art Museum provides a historical perspective on the museum of contemporary art It constitutes a step towards differencing the canon of modernist and contemporary art and a more complex understanding of the politics of curating the contemporary in the art museum why it
