Shakespeare's plays a tour de force of Elizabethan theatre can now be read and understood in the great warrior tongue even by non-Klingon speakers. As General Chang Christopher Plummer was heard to remark in the movie Star Trek IV: The Undiscovered Country, Shakespeare is better in the original Klingon. Building on the groundwork of linguist Marc Okrand, author of The Klingon Dictionary who constructed a fully spoken language out of what began as little more than a background prop, the Klingon Language Institute in Flourtown, Pennsylvania, is dedicated to the study and teaching of Klingon as a living tongue. Translating the great works of literature, Hamlet among them, is central to their philosophy of education and discovery.

The Playwright's Toolbox Justin Maxwell, 2024-05-07. To an unusual degree among writers, playwrights' creations are not simply words on a page. Instead, a well-wrought play is an intricate machine that will be used by directors, actors, designers, and other creators to bring a fully staged, real-time performance into the world. The construction and maintenance of that machine is the playwright's job, and it requires an array of complex, interconnected skills and techniques. Enter Justin Maxwell and The Playwright's Toolbox, a stimulating and wide-ranging resource for both beginning and experienced dramatists. It brings together invigorating, provocative, and irreverent exercises contributed by nearly 60 leading English-language playwrights, covering all stages of the writing process. It offers an accessible roadmap for those who have never written a play before, while providing new angles and solutions for seasoned writers struggling with a particular challenge. Covered here is everything from generating ideas and world-building through dialogue and plotting to revision and the last steps before releasing a play into the world, making this an endlessly useful guide to building better plays.

Beneath the moon Dolly Pentreath (pseud.), 1899. The Theater of Lee Blessing Philip Zwerling, 2016-05-19. Nominated for Pulitzer, Tony, and Obie awards among others, Lee Blessing has shaped American theater over the last 40 years. Tackling subjects like child abuse, racism, sexism, and war, as well as baseball, love, and religion, Blessing has dedicated himself to investigating and dramatizing both the triumphs and evils of contemporary society. This book examines for the first time all 44 of his plays and includes one of his unpublished scripts, providing a definitive text on a playwright whose thought-provoking work has been performed around the world.

Performing Mountains Jonathan Pitches, 2020-04-02. Launching the landmark Performing Landscapes series, Performing Mountains brings together for the first time Mountain Studies and Performance Studies in order to examine an international selection of dramatic responses to mountain landscapes. Moving between different registers of writing, the book offers a critical assessment of how the cultural turn in landscape studies interacts with the practices of environmental theatre and performance. Conceived in three main parts, it begins by unpicking the layers of disciplinary complexity in both fields, before surveying the rich history and practice of rituals, playtexts, and site-specific works inspired by mountains. The last section moves to a unique analysis of mountains themselves, using key concepts from performance, training, scenography, acting, and spectatorship. Threaded throughout is a very personal tale of mountain research, offering a handrail or alternative guide through the book.
