The Music History Classroom James A. Davis, 2016-02-17 The Music History Classroom brings together essays written by recognized and experienced teachers to assist in the design implementation and revision of college level music history courses This includes the traditional music history survey for music majors but the materials presented here are applicable to other music history courses for music majors and general education students alike including period classes composer or repertory courses and special topics classes and seminars The authors bring current thought on the scholarship of teaching and learning together with practical experience into the unique environment of the music history classroom While many of the issues confronting teachers in other disciplines are pertinent to music history classes this collection addresses the unique nature of musical materials and the challenges involved in negotiating between historical information complex technical musical issues and the aesthetics of performing and listening This single volume provides a systematic outline of practical teaching advice on all facets of music history pedagogy including course design classroom technology listening and writing assignments and more The Music History Classroom presents the nuts and bolts of teaching music history suitable for graduate students junior faculty and seasoned teachers alike

Archaeology Robert L. Kelly, David Hurst Thomas, 2010 This new brief edition pairs two of archaeology's most recognized names David Hurst Thomas of the American Museum of Natural History and Robert L. Kelly of the University of Wyoming The authors passionate down to earth introduction to archaeological method and theory makes the book ideal for all students whether or not they intend to pursue a career in archaeology Students will gain an immediate concrete impression of what the practice of archaeology involves The authors include well chosen examples to show how archaeologists have worked through actual problems in the field and in the lab After using this text students will be better able to ask questions solve problems and discern truth from fiction They will learn about the nature of archaeological data and how archaeologists do such things as archaeological survey and excavation They will also develop their sense of scientific logic and gain a better understanding of career opportunities available to archaeologists This edition is enhanced with a new full color design that improves the visual presentation and enables students to more clearly see the key points of an image A rich array of supplemental resources includes a new companion website as well as the option to use the DOING FIELDWORK ARCHAEOLOGICAL DEMONSTRATIONS CD ROM Version 2.0 also developed by the authors
