Virginia Politics & Government in a New Century Jeff Thomas, 2016-10-24 The modern political landscape of Virginia bears little resemblance to the past The commonwealth is a nationally influential swing state alongside stalwarts like Florida or Ohio But with increased power comes greater scrutiny and corruption Governor Bob McDonnell received a jail sentence on federal corruption charges later vacated by the U S Supreme Court Corporate influence on the state legislature and other leaders resulted in numerous ethics violations Scandal erupted at the prestigious University of Virginia when the school ousted its president amid political drama and intrigue Author Jeff Thomas reveals the intersection of money power and politics and the corrosive effect on government in a new era

Shipped but Not Sold Nancy Um, 2017-05-31 In the early decades of the eighteenth century Yemen hosted a bustling community of merchants who sailed to the southern Arabian Peninsula from the east and the west seeking and offering a range of commodities both luxury and mundane In Shipped but Not Sold Nancy Um opens the chests these merchants transported to and from Yemen and examines the cargo holds of their boats to reveal the goods held within They included eastern spices and aromatics porcelain cups and saucers with decorations in gold from Asia bales of coffee grown in the mountains of Yemen Arabian horses and a wide variety of cotton silk velvet and woolen cloth from India China Persia and Europe in addition to ordinary provisions such as food beer medicine furniture pens paper and wax candles As featured in the copious records of the Dutch and English East India Companies as well as in travel accounts and local records in Arabic these varied goods were not just commodities intended for sale in the marketplace Horses and textile banners were mobilized and displayed in the highly visible ceremonies staged at the Red Sea port of Mocha when new arrivals appeared from overseas at the beginning of each trade season Coffee and aromatics were served and offered in imported porcelain and silver wares during negotiations that took place in the houses of merchants and officials Major traders bestowed sacks of spices and lavish imported textiles as gifts to provincial governors and Yemen s imam in order to sustain their considerable trading privileges European merchants who longed for the distant comforts of home carried tables and chairs along with abundant supplies of wine and spirits for their own use and in some cases further distribution in Yemen s ports and emporia These diverse items were offered displayed exchanged consumed or utilized by major international merchants and local trade officials in a number of socially exclusive practices that affirmed their identity status and commercial obligations but also sustained the livelihood of their business ventures Shipped but Not Sold posits a key role for these socially significant material objects many of which were dispatched across oceans but not intended only for sale on the open market as important signs tools and attributes in the vibrant world of a rapidly transforming Indian Ocean trading society

Sol: Image and Meaning of the Sun in Roman Art and Religion, Volume II Steven E. Hijmans, 2024-04-02 With this analysis of Sol images Steven E Hijmans paints a new picture of the solar cult in ancient Rome The paucity of literary evidence led Hijmans to prioritize visual sources and he opens this study with a thorough discussion of the theoretical and methodological issues involved Emphasizing the danger of facile equivalencies between visual and verbal meanings his primary focus is Roman praxis manifest in for instance the strict patterning of Sol imagery These patterns encode core concepts that Sol imagery evoked when deployed and in those concepts we recognize the bedrock of Rome's understandings of the sun and his cult Case studies illustrate these concepts in action and the final chapter analyzes the historical context in which previous now discredited views on Sol could arise This is volume II of a two volume set The Mamluk Sultanate from the Perspective of Regional and World History Reuven Amitai,Stephan Conermann,2019-06-17 The Mamluk Sultanate represents an extremely interesting case study to examine social economic and cultural developments in the transition into the rapidly changing modern world On the one hand it is the heir of a political and military tradition that goes back hundreds of years and brought this to a high pitch that enabled astounding victories over serious external threats On the other hand as time went on it was increasingly confronted with modern problems that would necessitate fundamental changes in its structure and content The Mamluk period was one of great religious and social change and in many ways the modern demographic map was established at this time This volume shows that the situation of the Mamluk Sultanate was far from that of decadence and until the end it was a vibrant society although not without tensions and increasing problems that did its best to adapt and compete in a rapidly changing world Problem-Solving Exercises in Green and Sustainable Chemistry Albert S. Matlack,Andrew P. Dicks,2015-11-05 When confronted with a problem in science the way to proceed is not always obvious The problem may seem intractable or there may be many possible solutions with some better than others Problem Solving Exercises in Green and Sustainable Chemistry teaches students how to analyze and solve real world problems that occur in an environmental context , Plant Breeding Reviews, Volume 41 Irwin Goldman,2018-03-27 Plant Breeding Reviews presents state of the art reviews on plant genetics and the breeding of all types of crops by both traditional means and molecular methods Many of the crops widely grown today stem from a very narrow genetic base understanding and preserving crop genetic resources is vital to the security of food systems worldwide The emphasis of the series is on methodology a fundamental understanding of crop genetics and applications to major crops Smart Textiles Nazire Deniz Yilmaz,2018-12-06 Smart Textiles Wearable Nanotechnology provides a comprehensive presentation of recent advancements in the area of smart nanotextiles giving specific importance to materials and production processes Different materials production routes performance characteristics application areas and functionalization mechanisms are covered The book provides a guideline to students researchers academicians and technologists who seek novel solutions in the related area by including groundbreaking advancements in different aspects of the diverse smart nanotextiles fields This groundbreaking book is expected to spark an inspiration to allow future progress in smart nanotextiles research The diversity of the topics as well as the expert subject matter contributors from all over the world representing various disciplines ensure comprehensiveness and a broad understanding of smart nanotextiles Teaching the Global Middle Ages Geraldine
