

AP World History: Pacing Guide for Reading

This reading load is considerable and in order to cover the maximum amount of material with the least amount of stress, you must manage your time appropriately and ask for help when you need. Much of the content is learned by you, on your own, outside of the class. You are responsible for understanding all of the material for testing. The amount of time required for homework for this class will vary with your reading speed. Watch for daily assignments, supplemental readings and take-home essays in addition to your notes and terms. As you become accustomed to the course format all will fall into place and become easier. Unless otherwise noted in class, the following due dates will hold. See below for what is due on those dates.
