Poems from the Second World War Gaby Morgan, 2016-12-31 Poems from the Second World War is a moving and powerful collection of poems written by soldiers nurses mothers sweethearts and family and friends who experienced WWII from different standpoints The Imperial War Museum was founded in 1917 to collect and display material relating to the Great War which was still being fought Today IWM is unique in its coverage of conflicts especially those involving Britain and the Commonwealth from the First World War to the present They seek to provide for and to encourage the study and understanding of the history of modern war and wartime experience Ode to Bully Beef John Sadler, Rose Serdiville, 2014 The Second World War 1939-45 was not greeted with the same lavish outpouring of patriotic fervour that had attended August 1914 Any rags of glory had long since been drowned in the mud of Flanders The Great War had been heralded as the war to end all wars veterans were promised a land fit for heroes Both of these vain boasts soon began to sound hollow as depression unemployment poverty and a rash of new wars followed The sons and daughters of those who had embarked upon their own patriotic Calvary did so again in an altogether more sombre spirit One significant difference between the two conflicts is that whilst both were industrial wars the Second World War was far nearer the concept of total war The growth of strategic air power in its infancy in 1918 had by 1939 become a reality In this war even more widespread and terrible than the last there were to be no civilians Death sought new victims everywhere British citizens were now in the front line there was to be no respite no hiding place This is the poetry and prose of those who were there ordinary people caught in the terrible maelstrom of mass conflict on a scale hitherto unimagined this is their testimony War Primer Bertolt Brecht, 2017-05-02 A terrifying series of short poems by one of the world's leading playwrights set to images of World War II In this singular book written during World War Two Bertolt Brecht presents a devastating visual and lyrical attack on war under modern capitalism He takes photographs from newspapers and popular magazines and adds short lapidary verses to each in a unique attempt to understand the truth of war using mass media Pictures of catastrophic bombings propaganda portraits of leading Nazis scenes of unbearable tragedy on the battlefield all these images contribute to an anthology of horror from which Brecht's perceptions are distilled in poems that are razor sharp angry and direct The result is an outstanding literary memorial to World War Two and one of the most spontaneous revealing and moving of Brecht's works
