World War II for Kids Richard Panchyk,2005-11-01 Now more than ever kids want to know about our country s great struggles during World War II This book is packed with information that kids will find fascinating from Hitler s rise to power in 1933 to the surrender of the Japanese in 1945 Much more than an ordinary history book it is filled with excerpts from actual wartime letters written to and by American and German troops personal anecdotes from people who lived through the war in the United States Germany Britain Russia Hungary and Japan and gripping stories from Holocaust survivors all add a humanizing global perspective to the war This collection of 21 activities shows kids how it felt to live through this monumental period in history They will play a rationing game or try the butter extender recipe to understand the everyday sacrifices made by wartime families They will try their hands at military strategy in coastal defense break a code and play a latitude and longitude tracking game Whether growing a victory garden or staging an adventure radio program kids will appreciate the hardships and joys experienced on the home front

Children's Fashions of the Past in Photographs Alison Mager,2013-01-03 Capture a glimpse of yesteryear with these 165 studio photos of American and European children from the 1860s to the 1920s

Children During Wartime Brenda Williams,2005-11-23 This series examines different aspects of warfare from female soldiers the toll it takes on children to what happens on the home front Up to date facts vibrant photos and detailed accounts help to portray warfare and how it truly plays out on the world stage

Certain Victory: Images of World War II in the Japanese Media David C. Earhart,2015-06-01 This unique window on history employs hundreds of images and written records from Japanese periodicals during World War II to trace the nation s transformation from a colorful cosmopolitan empire in 1937 to a bleak total war society facing imminent destruction in 1945 The author draws upon his extensive collection of Japanese wartime publications to reconstruct the government controlled media s narrative of the war s goals and progress thus providing a close up look at how the war was shown to Japanese on the home front Many of these visual and written sources are rare in Japan and were previously unavailable in the West Strikingly the narrative remains consistent and convincing from victory to retreat and even as defeat looms large Earhart s nuanced reading of Japan s wartime media depicts a nation waging war against the world and a government terrorizing its own people At once informed scholarly and readily accessible this lavishly illustrated volume offers an accurate representation of the official Japanese narrative of the war in contemporary terms The images are fresh and compelling revealing a forgotten world by turns familiar and alien beautiful and stark poignant and terrifying

Children's Picture Books about Refugees and Campbell's Monomyth Eseta Tualaulelei,Martin Kerby,Margaret Baguley,Alison Bedford,2025-07-14 This book explores the portrayal of refugee experiences in children s picture books using insights from Joseph Campbell s The Hero with a Thousand Faces Chapter 1 considers this emerging genre of children s literature within its social and educational context and explains how the narratives embedded within these books were examined Chapter 2 cites key studies in the field of children s picture books about refugees to uncover common narrative

arcs characterisations themes and educative value Remaining chapters detail the three core elements of Campbell s canonical narrative arc to review how the experience of refugees is presented in modern picture books using this familiar narrative structure as a means of exploring a humanitarian issue with overt political overtones In so doing the authors employ an innovative means of analysing picture books that deal with refugees by positioning them within a familiar narrative arc that belies the fear of difference they may otherwise represent Popular Educator ,1923
