Worlds In Collision By Immanuel Velikovsky Doubleday May 7 195:

Mythmaking across Boundaries Züleyha Çetiner-Öktem, 2016-04-26 This volume explores the dynamics of myths throughout time and space along with the mythmaking processes in various cultures literatures and languages in a wide range of fields ranging from cultural studies to the history of art The papers brought together here are motivated by two basic questions How are myths made in diverse cultures and literatures And do all different cultures have different myths to be told in their artistic pursuits To examine these questions the book offers a wide array of articles by contributors from various cultures which focus on theory history space place philosophy literature language gender and storytelling Mythmaking across Boundaries not only brings together classical myths but also contemporary constructions and reconstructions through different cultural perspectives by transcending boundaries Using a wide spectrum of perspectives this volume instead of emphasising the different modes of the mythmaking process connects numerous perceptions of mythmaking and investigates diversities among cultures languages and literatures viewing them as a unified whole As the essays reflect on both academic and popular texts the book will be useful to scholars and students as well as the general reader
