Blumenthal,Robert C. Pianta,2025-09-08 In this visionary effort students take the lead in reimagining public education for the twenty first century advocating for a more active personalized and relational approach to learning Twenty first century youth are hungry for new ways to learn Their world is global mobile and rich with opportunities previous generations couldn't possibly have imagined As they make clear in this book the old standards of schooling no longer apply In Kids on Earth Howard Blumenthal and Robert C Pianta go straight to the source students themselves to rethink public education for the five billion young minds projected to be learning by 2050 Blumenthal and Pianta interview children and teenagers from more than seventy countries along with parents teachers and learning experts to build from their perspectives a scalable global framework for radical educational change New School in contrast to old school is a foundational concept with three guiding pillars learning is active learning is personal and learning is relational Its teachings emphasize cognitive science memory and relationships aligning learning with contemporary lived experience New School also appreciates Not School external instruction that involves media technology and other forms of learning Integrating these spheres Blumenthal and Pianta argue would better reflect our hyperconnected innovative world motivating students to succeed within it Kids on Earth calls not for reform but reinvention an ambitious all hands on deck effort to remake school for current and future generations preparing them best for global citizenship Unlike many books on education this volume gives kids the chance to make it alright
