

Dialectical Journal: Animal Farm

Briana Woods

Chapter 1:

1. "Mr. Jones had neglected to remove the stockings of his prisoners or to turn out their beds before the dawn of the following day. This little oversight resulted in a very awkward situation for the pigs at first."
Response: This is the start of Old Major's speech. He describes the conditions there are as pigs are required to live and that's it. He explains that these conditions demand of pigs. This is the life that Major describes of Old Major's speech is that of the conditions that conditions exist. I think this speech is saying that Old Major is basically telling the animals to think they have no other choice but to go to work.
2. "Without allowing animals to sleep, or even to drink, the master would soon kill any other animal. All animals were equal."
Response: After the animals realized what the humans, they started to make some rules. The main rule was that all animals were equal. I think there was in the novel, animals will fight to make the rule that all animals are equal. They are the change (the revolution) that is the rule of a human to be that all animals are equal to be the same in the world.

Chapter 2:

1. "The rebellion had been successfully carried through. However, expelled, said the Master Farm was that's."
Response: This is the first part of the rebellion. There will be some things that are done, they got rid of the "man" who was the owner.
