THE COLD WAR TURNS GLOBAL

After World War II, the United States and the Soviet Union emerged as superpowers. They formed military alliances with nations they perceived as enemies. The United States helped form the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO). The organization in Western European allies. The Soviet Union formed the Warsaw Pact with Eastern European countries.

The Cold War turned into a global conflict. Following World War II, Americans and Soviet Union had agreed to divide Korea at the 38th parallel. Communist Kim Il-sung ruled the North and U.S. ally Syngman Rhee ruled the South. In 1950, North Korean troops attacked South Korea. The United Nations forces supported them along the southern border then began advancing north. War ending in a compromise China, sent Chinese troops to help the North Koreans. The UN forces were pushed back to the 38th parallel. In 1953, both sides agreed to end the fighting. Armistice agreement is a written rule of the armed forces between countries (1953). Over time, North Korea enjoyed an economic boom, while communist South Korea's economy declined.

The Cold War conflict also spread to parts of the Western Hemisphere. During the 1950s, Fidel Castro led a revolution in Cuba and turned it to Soviet. To bring down Castro's communist regime, U.S. President John F. Kennedy supported an invasion of Cuba called the Bay of Pigs, but it failed. One year later, the Soviet sent nuclear missiles to Cuba. Many feared a nuclear war. After U.S. pressure and a secret blockade, Soviet leader Nikita Khrushchev agreed to remove the missiles. The Cuban Missile Crisis was particularly example of Cold War conflict.
