The first Americans arrived as early as _____ years ago. It is believed that they crossed a distant land bridge between Asia and Alaska, now called _____, and into North America. Some groups may also have edged down the _____ to Florida. Evidence suggests that these first Americans were _____ hunters and that their most rewarding prey was the _____, which provided them with many of life's essentials. Between 10,000 and 5,000 years ago, people began to experiment with _____ in what is now central Mexico. Archaeologists believe that _____ was the first plant that ancient Americans developed for human use. The growth of agriculture allowed people to settle down in one place and build communities. This, in turn, led eventually to the development of civilizations.
