Critical Media Literacy and Fake News in Post-Truth America Christian Z. Goering, Paul L. Thomas, 2018-04-16 This edited collection is not a response to the 2016 United States Presidential Election so much as it is a response to the issues highlighted through that single event and since when incredibly smart sophisticated and intelligent members of our society were confused by misinformation campaigns While media literacy and critical media literacy are ideas with long histories in formal education including K 12 students and higher education the need for increased attention to these issues has never reached a flash point like the present The essays collected here are confrontations of post truth fake news mainstream media and traditional approaches to formal schooling But there are no simple answers or quick fixes Critical media literacy we argue here may well be the only thing between a free people and their freedom Japan/United States Textbook Study Project, 1981

of Othering in Israeli Schoolbooks Nurit Elhanan-Peled, 2023-09-11 The Zionist pedagogical narrative reproduced in schoolbooks views the migration of Jews to Israel as the felicitous conclusion of the journey from the Holocaust to the Resurrection It negates all forms of diasporic Jewish life and culture and ignores the history of Palestine during the 2000 year long Jewish exile This narrative otherizes three main groups vis vis whom Israeliness is constituted Holocaust victims who are presented in a traumatizing manner as the stateless and therefore persecuted Jews we refuse but might become again if we lose control over Palestinian Arabs who constitute the second group of others Palestinians are racialized demonized and portrayed as our potential exterminators The third group of others comprises non European Mizrahi and Ethiopian Jews They are described as backward people who lack history or culture and must undergo constant acculturation to fit into Israel's Western society Thus a rhetoric of victimhood and power evolves and a nationalistic interpretation of the never again imperative is inculcated justifying the Occupation and oppression of Palestinians and the marginalization of non European Jews This rhetoric is conveyed multimodally through discourse genres and visual elements The present study which advocates a multidirectional memory proposes an alternative Hebrew Arabic multi voiced and poly centered curriculum that would relate the accounts of the people whom the pedagogic narrative seeks to conceal and exclude This joint curriculum will differ from the present one not only in content but also ideologically and semiotically Instead of traumatizing and urging vengeance it will encourage discussion and celebrate diversity and hybridity Encyclopedia of Teacher Education Michael A. To be a Teacher Russell J. Armstead, 2006 Palestine in Israeli School Books Nurit Peled-Elhanan, 2013-10-01 Each year Israel's young men and women are drafted into compulsory military service and are required to engage directly in the Israeli Palestinian conflict This conflict is by its nature intensely complex and is played out under the full glare of international security So how does Israel s education system prepare its young people for this How is Palestine and the Palestinians against whom these young Israelis will potentially be required to use force portrayed in the school system Nurit Peled Elhanan argues that the textbooks used in the school system are laced with a pro Israel ideology and that they play a part in priming Israeli children for military service She analyzes the presentation of images maps layouts and use of language in History Geography and Civic Studies textbooks and reveals how the books might be seen to marginalize Palestinians legitimize Israeli military action and reinforce Jewish Israeli territorial identity This book provides a fresh scholarly contribution to the Israeli Palestinian debate and will be relevant to the fields of Middle East Studies and Politics more widely

Florida School Bulletin ,1963 The Rise and Fall of Civic Education Michael Learn,2024-09-16 Social studies is a field in crisis The crisis stems from failure to establish the very foundation of social studies purpose in public education civic education Social studies advocates have never put forth a coherent method for teaching civic education because policymakers and the public have been unable to agree upon a general definition of civic education This issue has disrupted the field since the early days As educators sought to include civic education within public schools as a dedicated field social studies evolved into a blending of history social sciences and civic education Social studies evolution never resolved the differences between the three with each discipline striving to control the narrative Instead of creating a unified field the disciplines devalued social studies and thus any discipline associated with it The Rise and Fall of Civic Education The Battle for Social Studies in a Shifting Historical Landscape investigates the changing definitions and purposes ascribed to social studies in the United States through time This result is viewed through the rising tensions from culture wars as America s divisive politics fight to control the narrative of the disciplines within social studies Florida Schools ,1964 The Status of World History Instruction in American Secondary Schools William E. Pulliam,1972 The one year course in world history popular in some quarters does not seem to have made much headway High school level courses on world history are one of the many responses to the World Wars yet said courses have never been recommended by a committee of national scope on which there were any historians Opinion surveys among teachers and students indicate that no other part of the typical social studies program is more criticized than the tenth grade level one year elective world history course These courses are increasing in number textbooks are multiplying and a few interesting experiments are being worked out yet there is no general agreement on organization scope objectives teaching strategies or assessment in these courses This document is a summary of historical and recent surveys on curricular trends in social studies with regard to world history to help educators assess what impact they may have on the teaching of world history in the 1970s The Review of Korean Studies ,2008 Information on Education Around the World ,1958 Annual Report Marshall Islands. propaganda na educação Nurit Peled-Elhanan, 2019-12-18 Qual o poder da escola na formação cultural de uma nação? Como ela pode contribuir para predispor os jovens a reproduzir situações de opressão em vez de transformá-las? A educação assediada explicitamente por discursos como o da formação para o mercado de trabalho mas não haveria outros ainda tão ou mais perigosos operando? Em Ideologia e propaganda na educação a Palestina nos livros didáticos israelenses a professora de linguagem da educação Nurit Peled Elhanan investiga os recursos visuais e verbais utilizados em livros didáticos de Israel para representar a população palestina. Mobilizando o arcabouço teórico e metodológico da análise crítica do discurso e da análise multimodal a autora examina e apresenta o uso de imagens, mapas, layouts e o uso da linguagem em livros de história, geografia e educação moral e cívica. O resultado: uma detalhada exposição dos mecanismos pelos quais esses materiais escolares moldam um imaginário de marginalização dos palestinos. Segundo a autora, o discurso aparentemente científico e neutro empregado no material usado em sala de aula em realidade carregado de signos de violência, desprezo e intolerância contra os palestinos. Filha de um general do Exército de Israel que após participar da Guerra dos Seis Dias, junho de 1967, tornou-se um importante acadêmico e militante pacifista, Nurit Peled Elhanan tornou pública sua contundente crítica à ocupação da Faixa de Gaza por Israel depois de perder a filha de 13 anos num atentado suicida palestino em 1997. Para a autora, os livros didáticos têm um papel crucial na transformação dos bem educados rapazes e moças israelenses em combatentes prontos a eliminar o inimigo. A edição brasileira conta com uma apresentação de Carlota Boto, professora da Faculdade de Educação da Universidade de São Paulo, e um prefácio inedito da própria autora reforçando a importância dos livros didáticos para a construção de uma identidade nacional israelense que oculta a população palestina.
