Music in Western Civilization Paul Henry Lang,1997 A comprehensive history of occidental music focuses on the function of music as an expression of the spirit and artistic life of each age

Source Readings in Music History William Oliver Strunk,1998 The definitive collection of great writings on music from ancient Greece through the twentieth century

Music in Martin Luther's Theology Yakub E. Kartawidjaja,2021-04-12 The study aims to analyse the impact of Luther s theology on his thoughts about music It limits itself to an analysis of the topic by focusing on the three most important statements of Luther about music in his unfinished treatise On Music The first statement is that music is a gift of God and not of man Dei donum hominum est second music creates joyful soul facit letos animos and third music drives away the devil fugat diabolum The relation between these three statements to each other and to Luther s theology in general can be understood in connection with his personal experiences and commitments to music which were undergirded by his theology Luther as a man of medieval times took for granted the existence of the devil and many of his writings contained frequent references to the personal attacks of the devil where it influenced his thoughts about music
