Play/Write Douglas Eyman,Andréa D. Davis,2016-04-06 lay Write Digital Rhetoric Writing Games is an edited collection of essays that examines the relationship between games and writing examining how writing functions both within games and the networks of activity that surround games and gameplay The collection is organized based on the primary location and function of the game writing relationship examining writing about games games as objects of critique and sites of rhetorical action ancillary and instructional writing that takes place around games the writing that takes place within the game using games as persuasive forms of communication writing through games and writing that goes into the production of games While not every chapter focuses exclusively on pedagogy the collection includes many selections that consider the possibilities of using computer games in writing instruction However it also provides a bridge between academic views of games as contexts for writing and industry approaches to the writing process in game design as well as an examination of a variety of game related genres that could be used in composition courses World Cinema and the Essay Film Brenda Hollweg,2019-05-29 World Cinema and the Essay Film examines the ways in which essay film practices are deployed by non Western filmmakers in specific local and national contexts in an interconnected world The book identifies the essay film as a political and ethical tool to reflect upon and potentially resist the multiple often contradictory effects of globalization With case studies of essayistic works by John Akomfrah Nguyen Trinh Thi and Apichatpong Weerasethakul amongst many others and with a photo essay by Trinh T Min ha and a discussion of Frances Calvert s work it expands current research on the essay film beyond canonical filmmakers and frameworks and presents transnational perspectives on what is becoming a global film practice
