

Informational Interview Example

The following is an informational interview done by a student: Informational Interview #2

Tom J. Wong

Self-employed museum exhibition designer

What things do you do each day?

I interview clients who usually represent a museum e.g. a curator . After the client has stated their particular design problem, I analyze-the problem from a variety of perspectives. The primary objective of museum display is preservation of the object. Design and display are secondary to this. With this in mind, I take into consideration physical requirements, lighting, equipment like computers or videos, construction factors like partitions and walls, display cases, colors and label display.

Along with all of these considerations, I have to factor in a budget as defined by the client. Sometimes, too, I have to consider things like shipping if the show is a traveling one and the display cases are going with the objects.

How were you trained for this career?

I received my undergraduate degree in Fine Arts and then received my masters in Architecture although now the same school M.I.T. (Massachusetts Institute of Technology) is calling the discipline Visual Studies. I continue my education by taking classes at the Massachusetts College of Art and by doing computer workshops at the media lab. at M.I.T.

I did purely architectural work at first and then started to bid on museum design work. I worked at the Boston Museum of Fine art for over 25 years on a contract basis. I also have done work for the Peabody Museum at Harvard and some of the other art museums around Boston. I also design special retail exhibits or shows like the Fuller Cadillac showroom.

Most of the book focuses on Slash's years with Guns N' Roses including many rock star clichés: trashed hotel rooms groupies drug abuse etc. Slash talks about Axl Rose frontman of Guns N' Roses and his departure from the band in the mid 1990s. He explains that Axl's inability to show up to gigs and rehearsals on time in addition to Axl's almost dictator-like control of the band.
