

LESSON PLAN: COLORS

OBJECTIVES:

- Introduction to primary colors: Red, Yellow, Blue
- To visually differentiate between primary colors.

MATERIALS:

- Red, yellow and blue papers,
- At least two other things for each color.

LESSON PLAN:

In this lesson plan we are going to introduce children to primary colors. Colors are everywhere around us, so it is quite possible that children might know these name or might be confused between their names. To make this association between sight of color and its name easier, we are going to introduce it with number of activities. First one being a fun color song! Before starting with the song, make sure the all the materials are ready. The colored papers, keep it handy- show it to them while you are singing a song. And the other colored objects, keep it in different spots in the room.

Creating Vibrant Art Lesson Plans Kristin Baxter, 2019-04-05 Writing lesson plans is often considered busywork but it can be a useful path for discovering what's important about artmaking and teaching. This book shows teachers how to slow down, breathe, and linger over the process of unit and lesson plan writing to uncover how much this process can support them professionally, creatively, and personally. The user-friendly text offers guidance for selecting an art project for the unit and then zooms into the nitty-gritty of specific lesson plans, including how to identify materials for a project and how to construct classroom dialogue to help students develop ideas for their artwork. The text also considers standards, assessments, and extensions to other subject areas. Featuring accessible language, clear definitions, practical examples, and self-reflection prompts, this unique resource will help pre and inservice teachers create lesson plans that are useful to their specific contexts and methods of teaching. If you happen to be feeling weary, frustrated, or uninspired, this book sparks imagination, fuels hope, and gives you theories to support what you know needs to be done. From the Foreword by P. Bruce Uhrmacher, Christy McConnell, Moroye, and Bradley Conrad, educational researchers, Baxter invites us to slow down and consider the lesson plan as a creative catalyst to inspire our own artmaking, as well as a space to examine why and what we teach. Lisa Hochtritt, Maryland Institute College of Art, an inspiring and playful resource that is much more rewarding than typical lesson planning. It will surely spark your imagination with every flip of the page. Hailey Adlard, art educator, Parkland School District, PA.

Arts and Creativity in East and Southeast Asian Preschools Alfredo Bautista, 2025-08-20 This book is based on the theoretical notion of glocalization, which is understood as the hybridization of global and local perspectives. It brings together contributions from Asian preschool stakeholders specializing in arts and creativity who present glocal pedagogical practices in the art forms of visual arts, music, drama, dance, and in multi-modal activities that integrate multiple art forms. The chapters provide Asian preschool teachers with insights on how to design, implement, and/or evaluate high-quality classroom activities. These insights help maximize children's creativity while being realistic and suitable to local preschools, as well as aligned with the expectations, values, and norms of traditional Asian societies. The chapters are primarily oriented to practice and also include conceptual and/or theoretical elaborations intended to ground and justify teachers' pedagogical choices. The various chapters also enhance teachers' pedagogical repertoires to benefit children's creative learning experiences in the arts This edited book serves as a valuable guide for preschool stakeholders in Asia including teachers and childcare practitioners both pre and in service school leaders head teachers area coordinators vice principals principals teacher educators curriculum designers consultants professional development providers and educational researchers in arts and creativity

Anyone Can Teach Art: How to Confidently Teach Art in Your Classical Homeschool Julie Abels, 2020-04-11 Me Teach art I don't even know how to draw Many of us started there We felt a total lack of confidence about teaching art We wanted to give our children all the benefits of art in their education but didn't know how Some of us did a few colorful hands on projects with our children but we could see they weren't really learning the basics of art We had never learned the basics of art ourselves But then after a few years of teaching art with the classical model of education we realized that teaching art can be as simple as teaching any other subject and we can learn it alongside our children Now we've condensed our knowledge here for you Instead of a how to draw book Anyone Can Teach Art presents the scope and sequence of a classical Christian art curriculum for K 12 students In this book we break it all down for you By the end of this book you'll know Why art should be included in everyone's education What are the basics of art creation and art appreciation How to use the ancient amazingly effective classical model of education to teach art Which simple drills and exercises to include in art projects to help students advance their skills How to proceed in art education once your students have mastered the basics What's stopping you from including art in your child's education Learn the basics and follow the plan in this book and you'll realize how easy it really is to teach art

Developing Preschool Language Classrooms Paul E. Quin, 1990 This text is designed to assist in the replication of a successful classroom home language intervention program for mildly to moderately language impaired preschool children The first portion of the manual discusses the rationale and operation of the program Provided in the second part are sample lesson plans which provide specific examples of the integration of language remediation targets into preschool activities After an introductory chapter a literature review examines a pragmatic approach to language intervention in the classroom Appended to this chapter are resources on pragmatic skills The next chapter considers the use of space furniture and learning materials in the classroom and includes a checklist for arranging and equipping a classroom Staffing and training in the preschool language classroom are discussed next and samples of school newsletters and forms for training and home visits provided The next chapter addresses planning and scheduling of language intervention and is followed by a consideration of classroom management with guidelines for managing behavior and a review of data collection in the classroom Provided for each lesson plan in Part II is information on language targets materials and procedures References accompany most chapters DB 101 Inclusive and SEN English Lessons Claire Brewer, Kate Bradley, 2017-12-14 These simple and creative activities and lesson plans created to teach the National Curriculum gives you new ideas for teaching English to inclusive classrooms Encourage every child to achieve their best results through the easily adaptable and fun activities The Early Childhood Curriculum Suzanne Krogh, Kristine Slentz, 2001-04 This is the fourth volume in our four volume book series This volume will consider the differing needs of teachers at varying age levels and the balance between naturally intergrated learning and subject oriented curriculum Art 7-11 Linda Green, Robin Mitchell, 2003-09-01 Aimed at non specialist primary teachers this book offers support for the two attainment targets of the national curriculum in art investigating and making and knowledge and understanding It uses examples and materials to explore various areas of children s development in art making and understanding and also aims to equip teachers with strategies for developing their own understanding and appreciation of the subject Units included cover such areas as children s motivation to make art developing co operative work with artists in schools learning about art from other cultures learning about art from different historical periods 2D and 3D art assessing children s art Teaching the Prekindergarten Child: Instructional Design and Curriculum Barbara Vance, 1973 Instructional design is the how of instruction and curriculum is the what of instruction This book is written with behaviorism as the theoretical foundation which some readers may find distracting However the chapter titled Learning Activities will be useful to anyone working with young children and struggling to articulate what good teachers do The chapters on assessing preinstructional behavior and evaluating outcomes of instruction are also helpful because the author suggests a variety of techniques to be used in concert as important components of the instructional design The chapters on movement and music give specific helps in areas where many teachers are timid about trying and which many texts neglect or treat in less detail A useful text for early childhood educators Children Today, 1977
