The Christian Advocate ,1909 A Complementary Approach to the Interpretation and Translation of Biblical Metaphors Peter Kamande Thuo,2021-01-31 In this in depth study Peter Kamande Thuo explores the complexity of accurately understanding interpreting and translating Scripture especially biblical metaphors Engaging the need for a stronger theoretical framework for conceptualizing and communicating metaphors across languages Dr Thuo proposes a complementary approach that utilizes relevance theory to bridge gaps presented by conceptual metaphor theory and cognitive linguistics Yet this book is far more than an abstract theoretical treatise Dr Thuo offers the example of the circumcised heart of Romans 2 as a case study providing practical guidance for his readers as he demonstrates the process of translating such a phrase into Kikuyu So doing he reminds us that the challenge of understanding interpreting and applying biblical metaphors across culture and language is not limited to the work of professional translation Rather it is at the heart of all scholarship discipleship and pastoral teaching and the task of every person engaged in reading the word of God

Bernbaum,2019-09-17 After the Berlin Wall fell a group of Christian colleges in the U S seized the opportunity to help build a faith based university in Moscow Told by the school s founder and president this is the story of the rise and fall of the first accredited Christian liberal arts university in Russia s history offering unique insight on Russia s post communist transition and the construction of a cultural educational bridge between the two superpowers Carceral Citizens Caroline M. Parker,2025-02-10 A nuanced take on how carceral expansions are changing labor and social life In Carceral Citizens anthropologist Caroline M Parker offers an ethnographic portrait of therapeutic communities in Puerto Rico the oldest colony in the Americas As nonprofits nested within the carceral state therapeutic communities serve as reeducation and recovery centers for the mostly male drug offenders who serve out their sentences engaged in manual labor and prayer. The most surprising aspect of these centers however is that their graduates often remain long after the completion of their term working as self appointed peer counselors in a mixture of volunteer and low wage positions. Parker seeks to explain this dynamic by showing how in these therapeutic communities criminalized men find new and meaningful ways of living in the shadow of the prison. Through their participation in the day to day functioning of the centers they discover and cultivate alternative forms of belonging, livelihood and citizenship despite living within the restrictions of the carceral state. Situating her study against the backdrop of Puerto Rico's colonial history and with findings that extend across Latin America, Parker challenges common assumptions about confinement, labor and rehabilitation. By delving into lives shaped by the convergence of imperialism, the carceral state and self help, she offers a fresh understanding of the transformations of labor and social life brought about by mass incarceration.

Developments in Aging, 1991, 1992 Sacred Mysteries Dennis Chester Smolarski, 1995. Sacred Mysteries opens by reflecting on the continual process of reform in the church and on the foundational principles for all liturgical action. It then moves to a discussion of each of the sacraments with particular reference to the way they are ritualized in the assembly. A final chapter addresses practices that can cloud the experience of mystery during liturgical celebrations and thus inhibit rather than enhance the power of the rite.

Saving Souls, Serving Society Heidi Rolland Unruh, Ronald J. Sider, 2005-10-06. Jesus Loves Japan Suma Ikeuchi, 2023-05-25. A study of ethnic Japanese Brazilian Pentecostal Christians living in Japan. After the introduction of the long term resident visa, the mass migration of Nikkeis (Japanese Brazilians) has led to roughly 190,000 Brazilian nationals living in Japan. While the ancestry based visa confers Nikkeis right to settlement virtually as a right of blood, their ethnic ambiguity and working class profile often prevent them from feeling at home in their supposed ethnic homeland. In response, many have converted to Pentecostalism, reflecting the explosive trend across Latin America since the 1970s. Jesus Loves Japan offers a rare window into lives at the crossroads of return migration and global Pentecostalism. Suma Ikeuchi argues that charismatic Christianity appeals to Nikkei migrants as a third culture, one that transcends ethno-national boundaries and offers a way out of a reality marked by stagnant national indifference. Jesus Loves Japan insightfully describes the political process of homecoming through the lens of religion and the ubiquitous figure of the migrant as the pilgrim of a transnational future. Praise for Jesus Loves Japan. Transnational migrants find spiritual sustenance in Suma Ikeuchi's careful, sensitive ethnography. In showing how Pentecostalism grants meaning to a bleak existence, Ikeuchi opens new vistas in our understanding of Japanese Brazilians residing in Japan. She offers fresh insights to all interested in identity puzzles, self-making, religious conversion and global movement Daniel T Linger Professor Emeritus of Anthropology University of California Santa Cruz Suma Ikeuchi's nuanced fieldwork among Japanese Brazilians Nikkei employed in Japan exposes the flawed hemato logic of government and corporate officials who believed that ancestry blood alone would make Nikkei more assimilable than other foreign guest workers This book demonstrates the primacy of culture over blood as a cipher for ethnicity Jennifer Robertson author of Robo Sapiens Japanicus Robots Gender Family and the Japanese Nation 2018 This is a remarkable book about a remarkable situation Through wonderfully vivid ethnography Ikeuchi documents the lives of Brazilian Pentecostal converts in Japan as they negotiate identities as migrants homecomers pilgrims and believers In the process the book becomes an anthropological meditation on time belonging sincerity and the multiple meanings of making connections through blood Simon Coleman Chancellor Jackman Professor University of Toronto *Japan Times.
