Red Ribbon Week community action guide United States. Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration,2004 Rhetoric and Hermeneutics Carol A. Newsom,2019-06-03 This collection of essays by Carol A Newsom explores the indispensable role that rhetoric and hermeneutics play in the production and reception of biblical and Second Temple literature Some of the essays are methodological and programmatic while others provide extended case studies Because rhetoric is as Kenneth Burke put it a strategy for encompassing a situation the analysis of rhetoric illumines the ways in which texts engage particular historical moments shape and reshape communities and even construct new models of self and agency The essays in this book not only explore how ancient texts hermeneutically engage existing traditions but also how they themselves have become the objects of hermeneutical transformation in contexts ranging from ancient sectarian Judaism to the politics of post World War I and II Germany and America to modern film criticism and feminist re reading Liberalism with Honor Sharon R. Krause,2002-04-15 Why do men and women sometimes risk everything to defend their liberties What motivates principled opposition to the abuse of power In Liberalism with Honor Sharon Krause explores honor as a motive for risky and difficult forms of political action She shows the sense of honor to be an important source of such action and a spring of individual agency more generally Krause traces the genealogy of honor including its ties to conscientious objection and civil disobedience beginning in old regime France and culminating in the American civil rights movement She examines the dangers intrinsic to honor and the tensions between honor and modern democracy but demonstrates that the sense of honor has supported political agency in the United States from the founders to democratic reformers such as Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Martin Luther King Jr Honor continues to hold interest and importance today because it combines self concern and personal ambition with principled higher purposes and so challenges the disabling dichotomy between self interest and self sacrifice that currently pervades both political theory and American public life The Dead Sea Scrolls Sarianna Metso,Hindy Najman,Eileen Schuller,2010-07-26 How were Jewish texts produced and transmitted in late antiquity What role did scribal practices play in the shaping of both scriptural and interpretive traditions which are as the Scrolls show so decisively intimately intertwined How were texts assembled from a variety of earlier sources both oral and written Why were they often attributed to pseudonymous authors from the remote past such as Moses and David How did the composers of these texts understand the enterprise in which they were engaged This volume furthers current debates about Qumran Scribal Practice and the transmission of traditions in Jewish Antiquity It is published with the conviction that the transmission of traditions and the details of scribal practices so often treated separately should be considered in conversation with each other Keeping the Republic Christine Barbour,Gerald C. popular His wit and satire in prose and in speech earned him praise from critics and peers He was lauded as the greatest American humorist of his age Mark Twain, a biography. The personal and literary life of Samuel Langhorne Clemens, by Albert Bigelow Paine Mark Twain,1912 Personal Recollections of Joan of Arc Mark Twain,2024-01-17 In Personal Recollections of Joan of Arc Mark Twain reimagines the life of the iconic French heroine through the eyes of her devoted page Louis de Conte Twain s prose combines meticulous historical detail with imaginative storytelling effectively bridging the gap between fact and fiction This novel departs from Twain s characteristic humor instead adopting a solemn tone that captures the moral complexity of Joan s trial and martyrdom Written in a style reminiscent of medieval chronicles the book reflects Twain s fascination with religious faith nationalism and the nature of heroism providing a profound exploration of Joan s impact on French identity Mark Twain born Samuel Langhorne Clemens was deeply influenced by the American West and its themes of individualism and morality His extensive research into Joan of Arc s life and the socio political context of 15th century France led him to craft this nuanced narrative Twain s belief in the inherent goodness and nobility of Joan mirrors his own values often reflecting his disdain for injustice and his advocacy for the underdog infusing the work with his characteristic empathy Readers seeking a thoughtful and richly textured portrayal of Joan of Arc will find Twain s work both enlightening and moving Personal Recollections of Joan of Arc stands as a testament to the enduring power of individual conviction amid societal upheaval making it an essential read for those interested in history literature and the complexities of human emotion The Proclamations of the Tudor Queens Frederic A. Youngs,1976-09-02 This study investigates the independent prerogative which Mary I and Elizabeth I exercised through royal proclamations These public documents were announced throughout England informing men and arguing the Queen s positions commanding local officials to perform specific actions and on occasion creating new but temporary law that was designed to meet crisis situation when no delay could be tolerated The theoretical relationship between this prerogative power and the existing statutory law has been the subject of much debate This study adds an element previously neglected the investigation of the Queens actual use of the proclamations showing that they did innovate with vigour and legislate in them but only to supplement and not supplant the law and within the limits slowly being formulated in the sixteenth century Professor Youngs demonstrates how the proclamations affected domestic security and foreign affairs social and economic matters and religion Culture of Shame / Culture of Guilt Thomas Schirrmacher,2018-05-10 Until now theology has hardly paid sufficient attention to the difference between cultures that are primarily guilt oriented and those that are primarily shame oriented Thomas Schirrmacher s work is noteworthy for the way he informs the reader not only as it relates to missionary theology and activity It goes on to inform the reader on this important topic as it relates to educational theory ethics and counseling from the points of view of both cultural anthropological and theology The work demonstrates that a total contrast between shame and guilt orientations does not correspond to the Biblical message nor is it derived from the tradition of the Occident and from churches of Reformation

origin Rather shame was already considered in and integrated into these perspectives The work is particularly challenging insofar as it calls for closer attention to be paid to the significance of the undisputed differences between shame oriented and guilt oriented cultures for the Christian doctrine of sin and also of reconciliation with God through Christ Prof Dr Ulrich Eibach Professor for Systematic Theology Bonn Germany Prof Dr theol Dr phil Thomas Schirrmacher PhD ThD DD is professor of the sociology of religion at the State University of the West in Timisoara Romania Distinguished Professor of Global Ethics and International Development at William Carey University in Shillong Meghalaya India as well as president and professor of ethics at Martin Bucer European Theological Seminary and Research Institutes with branches in Bonn Berlin Zurich Innsbruck Prague Istanbul and Sao Paulo Schirrmacher has held guest professorships and has given special lectures at universities on all continents Schirrmacher is chair of the Theological Commission of the World Evangelical Alliance WEA director of the International Institute for Religious Freedom Bonn Cape Town Colombo and Ambassador for Human Rights of WEA the WEA represents churches with 600 million members altogether He also is a member of the board of the International Society for Human Rights Schirrmacher regularly testifies in the German parliament and other parliaments in Europe as well as in the EU in Brussels the OSCE in Vienna and other international bodies His has written 102 books three of his newest books are Fundamentalism Racism and Human Trafficking He has earned four doctorates in missiology and ecumenical theology in cultural anthropology in ethics and in sociology of religion and received two honorary doctorates from the USA and India
