To: Gallaudet President Roberta "Bobbi" Cordano
800 Florida Ave NE
Washington, DC 20002

Dear President Cordano,

The Kappa Gamma Fraternity, as a student organization at Gallaudet University, and Kappa Gamma International, as its alumni organization representing members from all over the world, want to again emphasize that we recognize the profound systemic racism that still exist in our world and community, especially at Gallaudet University. As an organization full of men from all over the world we FULLY condemn and reject any forms of racism, white supremacy, and nazism!

As an organization that stresses leadership and good character of our members, we are heartbroken that the recent recirculation of images taken more than 30 years ago have hurt our community and understand the expectations for us to serve our community as leaders, colleagues, friends, and family are real. We strive to consistently be agents of positive change which our more recent active student administrations have worked towards through being proactive about owning up to our mistakes, past and present, and to be even more inclusive.

The email and video distributed to the community by Gallaudet University President Roberta Cordano on June 9, 2020 which erroneously accused our organization as "the face of systemic racism in our community," produced shockwaves throughout the deaf community and put our current active student members, Gallaudet was sworn to serve and protect, in harm's way. This was a disingenuous tactic to throw the students under the bus so the university can attempt to save face by avoiding the full responsibility of having cultivated and fostered an environment filled with systemic racism. This divisive action also had a huge ripple effect on our alumni members as they and their families have received death threats, lost their jobs, and faced the full wrath of the deaf community.
