

Conference opening remarks

Welcome

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to the ICGN's 20th anniversary Annual Conference here in London. We are very grateful to the City of London for their tremendous support they have provided as host and to the Conference Organizing Committee, particularly Richard Regan and Frank Curtiss as co-chairs, whose members have put together an engaging programme.

I would like to refer also to the many initiatives that have taken place this week: the ESG programme with 30 people in attendance hosted by FRC, the academic meeting jointly hosted by LBS and ECGI, the ICGN Committee Meetings with thanks to our committee chairs and members and ICGN's AGM.

We are fortunate to have the support of a great cadre of sponsors, whom I hope you will get to meet during the conference.

As platinum sponsors we have EY, Goai Group, Lieff Cabraser Heimann & Bernstein, Pomerantz and Stewarts Law. As gold sponsors we have Broadridge, The Center For Audit Quality, KPMG, Mazars, MSCI, Nestlé, Schroders and Sustainalytics. As silver sponsors we have Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd and Lukoil for our connector meeting. Also we would like to thank our media partners.

As you know, there are a range of reforms under consideration in Europe. The speakers in the programme are uniquely placed to debate these and highlight the key themes, trends and current practices for the audience. Especially interesting will be to learn the priorities and developments from several local, regional and international investors, companies, standard setters and other influencers.

Seeking Stability Amidst Disorder Tobias Borck,2023-11-01 The 2010s were a decade of transformation and conflict in the Middle East bookended by the Arab Uprisings and the coronavirus pandemic Throughout this time Saudi Arabia the UAE and Qatar the three Arab states with the most ambitious regional policies declared stability to be their main objective Yet rather than being a common denominator this seemingly shared goal in fact obscured differences between their often competing agendas These three Gulf monarchies all agreed that the Middle East had descended into unprecedented and dangerous instability following the Arab Uprisings But their assessments diverged on what characterized and drove the unrest This led each country to formulate different and at times contradictory views of how politics should be organized in and between states in the region and what role external powers should play to build a stable new order With no universally accepted definition of stability this book develops an original analytical framework linking this concept to that of order and provides a useful lens through which to understand foreign policy in the Gulf While governments often frame their relations with other states by evoking a joint commitment to stability Tobias Borck shows that this does not in itself imply strategic alignment
