Academic Activities/Information

Student B readily accompanied the speech-language pathologist (SLP) to the guidance office for testing. Student B's evaluation was completed while complying with health guidelines during the COVID-19 pandemic. Student B was attentive and cooperative during the evaluation. It should be noted that social distancing and alterations to the physical testing component were made as an effort to reduce potential transmission of the virus. Possible alterations include using protection in the form of masks, face shields, gloves, and use of tools to reduce touching of materials by student. Please note that the modifications do not follow the standardization guidelines of the instruments used. A note on this was not scored for a situation such as a pandemic. An extended disruption in schooling and/or the use of PPE may affect evaluation results. Interpret results with caution in conjunction with pre-pandemic data, current academic records, and a variety of sources when making eligibility decisions.

LANGUAGE

Student B's pragmatic language skills were formally assessed using the Test of Pragmatic Language, Second Edition (TOPL-2). Student B was administered the TOPL-2 on November 23, 2021. The following scores were obtained:
