Affordances in Everyday Life Zakaria Djebbara, 2022-08-27 The concept of affordances is being increasingly used in fields beyond ecological psychology to reveal previously unexplored interdisciplinary relationships These fields include engineering robotics artificial intelligence neuroscience urban theory architecture computer science and much more As the concept is adapted for its relational meaning between an agent and the environment or object the meaning of the term has changed to fit the customs of the adapting field This book maps the different shades of the term and brings insights into how it is operationalized by providing short accessible essays regardless of background Each contribution addresses big questions around this topic such as the application of the concept on ongoing research how to measure or identify affordances as well as other reflective questions about the future of affordances in the field The book is envisioned to be read by non experts students and researchers from several disciplines and fills the need for summarization across disciplines As the many adaptations flourished from the same psychological concept this book also aims to function as a catalyst and motivation for reinterpreting the concepts for new directions Compared to existing books this book aims not to span the vertical dimension of field by taking a deep dive into a niche field instead this book aims to have a wide horizontal span highlighting a common concept shared by an increasing number of fields namely affordances As such this book takes a different approach by attempting to summarize the different emerging applications and definitions of the concept and make them accessible to non experts students and researchers regardless of background and level Those who Can, Teach Kevin Ryan, 1998
Parabola, 1976 Who's who in Economics Mark Blaug, 1999 This standard reference text is a guide to economists both past and present who have made a substantial contribution to the subject It provides biographical bibliographical and critical information on over 1000 living economists and approximately 500 deceased economists Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1955 A Catalog of Books Represented by Library of Congress Printed Cards Issued to July 31, 1942, 1942
