Text Leveling Correlation Guide
Grades K-6

Because every reader is different, teachers often rely on a system of leveled books to match their students with just-right books. There are many systems and methods for leveling books and reading. There currently may differ among the various leveling systems. This chart is designed to assist teachers in correlating the reading levels across two of the most commonly used leveling systems. The text approximates how these levels correlate to each other and to related levels. This level by correlation is represented by general purposes only. Teachers are encouraged to adjust this correlation according to their personal evaluation and professional judgment.
