

The Common Application Personal Essay

The Transfer Application Personal Essay asks you to provide a statement addressing your reasons for transferring and the objectives you hope to achieve.

The opportunity to transfer and complete my undergraduate degree represents the fulfillment of a life long dream for me. I have spent the last thirty years of my life raising four extraordinary children, one of whom has special needs, practicing Chinese medicine as an acupuncturist and herbalist, and navigating the daily challenges of running both a busy household and family business. My experience at community college has been a joyous one. I want to continue to learn and grow within the cultivated wisdom and experience of a community of scholars, deepen my perceptions, broaden my understanding, and improve my communication skills. I have a strong desire to be of service, to be engaged in teaching and writing during the second half of my life, and completing my degree will provide me with essential tools to help bring that dream to fruition.

Western medicine is increasingly recognizing the interdependence of physiology and psychology, a viewpoint that Chinese medicine has always held. As a clinician, I am cognizant that everything I do potentially has an impact: how I greet my clients, how I interact, whether I genuinely believe they have the capacity to heal. And we all engage in this process constantly in some capacity. We all deeply affect each other in ways large and small, from the macrocosm of the planetary ecosystem to the microcosm of our own families. The more we understand those interconnections and their implications, the more likely we are to make wise choices that enhance our own vitality and enrich the lives of those with whom we come in contact. Education provides a portal to deeper insight, a way of refining and enlarging our perceptions so that we can respond appropriately with greater efficacy.

Pursuing my education has given me the opportunity to learn more about the world, as a way to better understand myself. One of my clients, an amazing 89-year-old woman, greeted every day with a sense of wonder and excitement. She was truly my teacher, and her appointment was always the highlight of my week. Mary Oliver's words, "Tell me, what is it you want to do with your one wild and precious life?" began to speak louder after I turned 50. I have been nourished by the loving guidance of many wonderful teachers. My goal is to nurture my own capacities as fully as possible through this opportunity to pursue my education, so that I can begin to give back what I've been so blessed to receive.
