

Example:

Jay Gatsby, the protagonist of The Great Gatsby, is a complex character who we can admire but also pity at times. F. Scott Fitzgerald depicts Gatsby as a hard-working and dedicated optimist, but also so completely consumed by his goals that he is completely out of touch with reality. Driven by his powerful sense of hope, Gatsby set out to become the ideal version of himself from a young age and stayed committed to it from the age of seventeen. Fitzgerald positions us to admire Gatsby's ambition, especially compared to the empty and lost Tom and Daisy. However, Fitzgerald also shows us through Gatsby that failing to move on from the past can lead someone to become manipulative, two-faced, and also have dangerous expectations of others.
