

Mastering the In-Basket Exercise

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This seminar will focus on making the Right Decisions when tackling issues in the In-Basket Exercise. Understanding Compliance with Departmental Rules, Regulations, Policies, Procedures and laws of the Commonwealth when everyday ethical and moral conflicts are present is essential. It will focus on several key factors which often prevent candidates from making the right choice in these situations and will provide insight into how to successfully work through them. Seminar participants will review priority choices through the use of realistic job scenarios which require difficult decision-making analysis. Each decision will be reviewed, evaluated and analyzed in class.

TOPICS TO BE DISCUSSED

- >> Compliance with policies, procedures, rules and regulations when making decisions
- >> The leadership "Perspective"
- >> How the public trust impacts leadership decisions
- >> What makes an item a high priority?
- >> Factors that impact the "Actions Required" by the candidate
- >> Understanding and successfully completing the required task

Greene, 2007. First published in 1996, this work covers all the major sectors of policing in the United States. Political events such as the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, have created new policing needs while affecting public opinion about law enforcement. This third edition of the Encyclopedia examines the theoretical and practical aspects of law enforcement, discussing past and present practices. CliffsTestPrep Police Sergeant Examination Preparation Guide Larry F. Jetmore, 2000-01-26. The CliffsTestPrep series offers full-length practice exams that simulate the real tests, proven test-taking strategies to increase your chances at doing well, and thorough review exercises to help fill in any knowledge gaps. CliffsTestPrep Police Sergeant Examination 2nd Edition can help you be a front runner in your examination for promotion to police sergeant. Written by a police professional in the time-honored police tradition of showing the way, this guide will give you the edge for success. Inside this test prep tool, you'll find two complete multiple-choice practice tests, complete answers, analysis of all exam subject areas, breakdowns of the written oral and physical examinations, a glossary of key terms. This book will help you understand the types of questions that will test your knowledge of several basic areas such as supervisory skills, motivating, communicating with, and delegating to your staff. In addition, you'll be prepared for the written exam, appearing before the oral board, dealing with situational exercises, going to the assessment center, having the physical examination. With guidance from the CliffsTestPrep series, you'll feel at home in any standardized test environment. Encyclopedia of Police Science Jack Raymond Greene, 2006-10-23. In 1996, Garland published the second edition of the Encyclopedia of Police Science, edited by the late William G. Bailey. The work covered all the major sectors of policing in the US. Since then, much research has been done on policing issues, and there have been significant changes in techniques and in the American police system. Technological advances have refined and generated methods of investigation. Political events such as the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, in the United States have created new policing needs while affecting public opinion about law enforcement. These developments appear in the third, expanded edition of the Encyclopedia of Police Science. 380 entries examine the theoretical and practical aspects of law enforcement, discussing past and present practices. The added coverage makes the Encyclopedia more comprehensive, with a greater focus on today's policing issues. Also added are themes such as accountability, the culture of police, and the legal framework that affects police decision. New topics discuss recent issues such as Internet and crime, international terrorism, airport safety, or racial profiling. Entries are contributed by scholars as well as experts working in police departments, crime labs, and various fields of policing.
