APES-USA : Academic Performance Evaluation of Students - Ubiquitous System Analyzed Prof Keshava Prasad Halemane Ph.D, 2014-02 Congratulations You have right in front of you a treasure From within these pages you will be able to pick up a good collection of reformist ideas and concepts endowed with the potential to bring about an epoch making impact on all kinds of assessments or evaluations in general and in the academic performance evaluation of students in particular Once it so happened that Prasad was moved by a real life encounter with one of his long time friends who shared with him her sour experience as a student in a premiere educational institution It seems that when she inquired with the professor who gave her a B grade in a course in which she expected an A grade she was called to a side and explained that it was indeed a very high B and that after all the difference between a low A and a high B is only marginal However that marginal difference had resulted in her missing an admission into an elite graduate program which was her cherished dream unrealized Prasad was ruminating on that episode during one of his casual walks on the sandy beach side off the Institute campus on a beautiful Thursday evening of the Eighth of August Two Thousand Two when he was visited by the slippery idea of SQUIDS flowing over the tidal waves from the salty waters of the sea swashing on and off the sandy beach front Yes that is it SQUIDS singular has indeed come as a unique blessing in disguise Here SQUIDS stands for Scale Quantum Unit Interval Domain Size that is the most fundamental basis for the design of a measurement scale SQUIDS defines the scale precision SQUIDS is the key concept used in resolving the mystery behind the unacceptably chaotic behavior of the Letter Grading System and also in developing an alternative system design as well The proposed design for a novel Students Academic Performance Evaluation System has a tremendous potential to usher in a conceptual paradigm shift in all kinds of assessments or evaluations The mathematical fallacy that is mysteriously implied in the design of the letter grading system has been well brought out and resolved here Although the problem has been well analyzed and even a solution has been proposed herein there remains a substantial amount of work remaining The next stage is the task of convincing and or getting convinced by the concerned stake holders in academia that can then facilitate a smooth implementation of this novel proposal You are urged to take a pro active leadership role in the entire exercise to bring about the needed changes

Creating a Successful Leadership Style Charles A. Bonnici, Bruce S. Cooper, 2011-04-16 Creating a Successful Leadership Style gives practical applications supported by real experiences It presents the actual situations a principal or assistant principal faces on a day to day basis and provides strategies to address them These strategies derive from a leadership style that is people oriented and designed to elicit positive outcomes and responses Charles A Bonnici presents several principles of educational leadership which taken together help the school leader develop a leadership style that is people oriented humane and effective In the course of the regular school day a school leader is rarely asked what management theory is being implemented in a school Instead the principal and assistant principal are faced with a multitude of immediate and long range problems and issues that need real life solutions Remarkable Women in New York History Helen Engel, Marilynn Smiley, 2014-04-08 A history of the amazing women who have left their mark on the Empire State. The significant events in New York State history are well known to educators, students, and New Yorkers alike. But often the role that women played in these events has been overlooked. In this book, members of the American Association of University Women in New York State have meticulously researched the lives and actions of some of New York's finest women. Some of the names are renowned like the great emancipator Harriet Tubman who settled in Auburn, and some are less so such as Linda Tetor who fought for the rights of senior citizens in Steuben County and throughout the state. Discover the stories of these indomitable women who from Long Island and Manhattan to Buffalo and Fredonia have steered the course of New York's history from the colonial era through today.

Engaging Students in Academic Literacies María Estela Brisk, 2022-12-12 The second edition of this important and practical text provides specific information to guide teachers in planning and carrying out genre writing instruction in English for K-8 students within the content areas. Informed by systemic functional linguistics (SFL), a framework conducive to instruction that views language as a meaning-making resource, this book guides teachers by presenting concrete ways to teach writing in the language arts, science, and social science curricula. Introducing theory of language that is effective in addressing the writing development of all students, especially multilingual/multicultural groups, the book provides essential scaffolding for teachers to design and implement effective inclusive curricula while building their own knowledge. Fully up to date, the second edition features new genres appropriate for middle school, examples of student writing, an expanded focus on genre pedagogy, a new chapter on bilingual learners, guidance for teaching in the middle grades, as well as clear steps to prepare genre units based on two decades of experience working with whole schools. The chapter units cover distinct genres including memoirs, historical genres, fictional narratives, arguments, and more. With ready-to-use tools, the new edition prepares elementary and middle school teachers to meet and adapt to the variable demands of their own educational contexts. Easy to navigate, this teacher-friendly text is an essential resource for courses in academic writing, English education, and multilingual education, and for pre-service and practicing English Language Arts (ELA) teachers who want to expand their teaching abilities and knowledge bases.
