Commission, 1971 Survey of access and benefit-sharing country measures accommodating the distinctive features of genetic resources for food and agriculture and associated traditional knowledge Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2021-09-01 The Commission on Genetic Resources for Food and Agriculture at its Seventeenth Regular Session requested its Secretary to prepare for review by the intergovernmental technical working groups on animal aquatic forest and plant genetic resources to produce an up to date survey of existing legislative administrative and policy approaches including best practices for ABS for the different subsectors of GRFA and traditional knowledge associated with

GRFA held by indigenous peoples and local communities with the aim of identifying typical approaches and lessons learned from their implementation as well as challenges and possible solutions The current survey comprises a baseline desktop review of legislation policy and literature It provides a review of how countries address the distinctive features of GRFA and TKGRFA based on the letter of their ABS legislative administrative and policy measures rather than on how these measures have been implemented in practice It therefore does not provide an analysis of the state of implementation the challenges involved and possible solutions to these challenges As such it aims to provide a basis for future empirical research on how ABS measures work in practice for GRFA subsectors A specific objective is to provide a typology of legislative administrative and policy measures applying to ABS for GRFA and TKGRFA Cross-national family research, ed Marvin Bernard Sussman, Betty E. Cogswell, 1972
