Announcements

*This month is designated to emphasize the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering, which supports your North American missionaries. Last year they planted 936 new churches around North America. Please pray about how you can help support our NAMB mission work through your giving.

*The 3rd-6th Grade Sunday School Class continues to collect donations for "Cans for Christ". Specific items needed this month are: jars of jelly, macaroni and cheese, bean weenies, canned vegetables, canned fruit, and laundry and dish detergent. They will be going to Meeting the Needs on Tuesday as this is DBC's day to serve.

*Dallasburg plays volleyball at 7:00 Monday night.

*The ordination service for our new deacons will be Sunday, March 30, at 6:00pm. This will be a special time in the life of our church, so you are encouraged to make plans to be here. A potluck fellowship will follow the service.

*DBC is putting together a "Sunshine Basket" for the family of Lynsey Bartram as they travel back and forth to Lexington as Lynsey recuperates from her surgery. Suggested items are gift cards to restaurants, and gift cards for fuel. You can give items to Melissa David or Jim Waincott, or place them in the container in the Meet and Greet Room. These need to be here by next Sunday.

*To my church family,

Thank you so much for prayers, cards, visits, and phone calls during my recent surgery and recovery. Cookie Malcomb

*The Art of Marriage conference is coming to DBC April 11-12 and will be led by Greg Williams. Invite everyone you know and consider participating in this event that is sure to strengthen and bless your marriage. You can register online at www.dburg.org. The cost is $15.00 per person.

Leon McBeth, 1987-01-29 The Baptist Heritage Four Century of Baptist Witness H Leon McBeth s The Baptist heritage is a definitive fresh interpretation of Baptist history Based on primary source research the book combines the best features of chronological and topical history to bring alive the story of Baptists around the world Baptists and Worship R. Scott Connell, 2020-11-30 Worship is dialogue It is more than that but it is not less than that The way Baptists have worshiped for three and a half centuries demonstrates this consistently in spite of their penchant for freedom and autonomy No one tells Baptists how to order their worship services They don t have a common liturgy that they must follow and yet their services look remarkably similar This is largely due to two controlling factors in their worship The Bible that they embrace as inspired inerrant authoritative and sufficient and the Christ revealing gospel that is contained within its pages When the word of God is followed closely a shape for worship order begins to emerge It is the same gospel shape that is found throughout the Bible When the word of God is applied to a worship service in which God and his people are engaged in a worship conversation a consistent contour of gospel elements and content begins to emerge that reveals the glory of the Christ we gather to worship He is so glorious that when we behold him we are transformed into the same image from one degree to another This is the power of corporate worship 2 Cor 3 Annual of the Southern Baptist Convention Southern Baptist Convention, 1949

Andrew Fuller Paul Brewster, 2010-10-01 A biography of English pastor Andrew Fuller 1754 1815 highlighting his method of relating doctrine to ministry Book two of the Studies in Baptist Life Thought series Testing Pluralism , 2013-06-20 This volume of the Religion and the Social Order series examines the phenomenon of the globalization of religions that has particularly characterized the last fifty years Historically religions were relatively tightly connected with territoriality The advent of relatively inexpensive and relatively accessible air transport has made it possible for groups of significant size to move from their original homelands and resettle in new sites In contrast to predictions associated with secularization theories that dominated the middle of the twentieth century today we find that the world s religions continue to provide meaning and value in the lives of their adherents This volume examines at a global level a variety of such groups and their adjustments Contributors include Edward Bailey Barbara Bertolani Anthony Blasi Emanuela Contiero Robert Dixon Anat Feldman Christina Gutierrez Ziga Barbara Kilbourne Barbara Loach Neils Reeh Stefano Sbalchiero Ren e de la Torre

Recognizing the Psychological and Cultural Strengths of Black Americans Robert T. Carter,2024-09-20 This book examines the cultural beliefs and practices of Black folks in relation to psychological strength Divided into four parts the book begins with a discussion on the history of African civilizations including an analysis of faiths architecture and cultural diversity of the continent followed by a meaningful dialogue on the history of slavery and plantations in North America The later sections are a study on the contribution of the African American community towards America s prosperity The book explores cultural values as a source of power and uses historical social and psychological research to construct a framework of Black cultural values and psychological resolve The author offers practical applications and interventions to demonstrate how this framework can be applied to training and policy matters on both individual and systemic levels Recognizing the Psychological and Cultural Strengths of Black Americans is essential reading for students and academics in the fields of Psychology Sociology Critical Race Theory Political Science and other related disciplines It will also be a useful resource for professionals including policy makers psychologist counsellors educators and social workers

Strangers in Zion William Robert Glass,2001 This story has been virtually ignored by historians of fundamentalism and historians of religion in the South Glass has written a history that fills a significant gap in the historical literature on fundamentalism and on religion in the American South As such he lays the groundwork for understanding the South s contribution to the growth of the religious right in second half of the twentieth century
