Resources in Education, 2001-10 The Power of Music Susan Hallam, Evangelos Himonides, 2022-07-11 Building on her earlier work The Power of Music A Research Synthesis of the Impact of Actively Making Music on the Intellectual Social and Personal Development of Children and Young People this volume by Susan Hallam and Evangelos Himonides is an important new resource in the field of music education practice and psychology A well signposted text with helpful subheadings The Power of Music An Exploration of the Evidence gathers and synthesises research in neuroscience psychology and education to develop our understanding of the effects of listening to and actively making music Its chapters address music's relationship with literacy and numeracy transferable skills its impact on social cohesion and personal wellbeing as well as the roles that music plays in our everyday lives Considering evidence from large population samples to individual case studies and across age groups the authors also pose important methodological questions to the research community The Power of Music defends qualitative research against a requirement for randomised control trials that can obscure the diverse and often fraught contexts in which people of all ages and backgrounds are exposed to and engage with music This magnificent and comprehensive volume allows the evidence about the power of music to speak for itself thus providing an essential directory for those researching music education and its social personal and cognitive impact across human ages and experiences Research in Education, 1974 Assessment Procedures for Counselors and Helping Professionals Robert J. Drummond, Karyn Dayle Jones, 2006 The leading text in appraisal for counselors is a thorough overview covering basic measurement theory and all relevant tests It provides guidance on how and when to use tests in different environments with different populations and practical guidance on basic procedures like test selection administration and reporting Key revisions include significant expansion of measurement foundations separate chapters on validity and reliability as well as a new chapter on Understanding Test Scores More case studies have also been added throughout the text to help readers understand how to work with assessments and assessment results Critical Ethnicity Robert H. Tai, Mary L. Kenyatta, 1999 In Critical Ethnicity leading scholars from several disciplines explore the interactions of ethnicity race and education in the United States which are embedded within discussions of diversity multiculturalism and identity politics Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience OE [publication] ,1967
