Dear [Teacher],

We understand that teaching can be overwhelming at times, and we want to suggest you be finding positive and effective ways to manage the challenges of the classroom. Moreover, we have noticed reports that you have engaged in misconduct in the classroom.

We are aware of your work. We are also aware of the challenges you face in the classroom. We are not suggesting any personal or professional challenges that you may be facing. We are only suggesting that you should be more responsible in the classroom. We are not suggesting that you should be more responsible in the classroom. We are only suggesting that you should be more responsible in the classroom.

We encourage you to reflect on your actions and make a concerted effort to maintain professional and ethical conduct in the classroom. We are here to support you and want to work with you to find solutions.

Sincerely,

[Principal]
