1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 Leadership in War and Peace Joan Johnson-Freese, 2025-03-31 This book offers a gendered perspective on leadership in war and peace considering leadership in its complexity and presenting a practical examination of both leadership successes and failures The work challenges readers to think through and discuss specific aspects of leadership including how and why leadership diversity matters and the ethical challenges presented by the revolving door of the military industrial complex Further leaders responsible for decisions involving war and peace must be able to understand appreciate and communicate effectively with everyone they work with and have a repertoire of leadership styles to use depending on context The book represents an excellent tool for developing such skills as it uniquely considers leadership through both male and female lenses along with the experiences and perspectives of multiple military government and industry leaders interviewed by the author making it both relatable and informative This book will be of much interest to students of gender studies leadership studies defense studies and military studies in general as well as military and security practitioners

Revival of the Gnostic Heresy J. Morris, 2008-11-24 In this rigorous and provocative study Joe E Morris argues that the basic tenets and practices of Fundamentalism are those of ancient Christian Gnosticism Drawing on extensive research and careful analysis Morris aligns the two religious phenomena point by point tenet by tenet Along the way he provides insights into the key hermeneutic of Fundamentalism inerrancy of Scripture highlighting the multiple problems with the positions of literal and inerrant interpretation their impracticality and unfeasibility and their contradiction with their own conservative doctrine namely the Incarnation of Jesus Christ This groundbreaking book dramatically recasts our understanding of the history of Christianity and gives important context to modern day religious debates When Something's Wrong Christina Caskey, 2011-03 When Christina Caskey's health took a dramatic and sudden turn for the worse in 2003 she found herself in a medical nightmare afflicted with a debilitating illness that no nearby doctor could diagnose Refusing to give up she sought help online and from doctors across the country This book is a result of her struggles and contains what she has learned while trying to get the medical care she needs Christina has written this book to help you Get the most out of your doctor's visits Manage your medications Organize your medical records and insurance papers Correspond with your insurance company or companies in the event of a problem or denial Find useful health information online for either a known or unknown diagnosis Learn travel tips for out of town doctor visits Make the best of your hospital stays Be proactive about your medical care The book provides tables and forms to help you summarize your health problems develop questions for effective doctor's appointments keep track of your symptoms labs and medications and record your medical provider and insurance company's contact information If you see a doctor regularly or are trying to find the right doctor this book will help you get more out of your medical care than you ever dreamed possible Christina Caskey lives in Flagstaff Arizona with her husband Robert She is the mother of four grown children Christina was shocked by how little is known medically about conditions like hers and now dedicates her time and energy to helping others who battle mysterious illnesses To this end all proceeds from the sale of this book will be used for research and treatment in the field of Infection Associated Chronic Fatigue Syndrome Visit Christina s website at www.whensomethingswrong.com Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States. The Nation, 2004 The Miscellaneous Repository Elisha Bates, 1829 The Amorous Restoration Andrew J. Counter, 2016-09-22 When Louis XVIII returned to the throne in 1814 and again in 1815 France embarked upon a period of uneasy cohabitation between the old and the new The writers of the age who included Chateaubriand Stendhal Balzac and Mme de Duras agreed that they lived at a historical turning point a transitional moment whose outcome though still uncertain would transform the French way of life beginning with the French way of love The literary works of the Bourbon Restoration ceaselessly return to the themes of love sex and marriage partly as vital cultural questions in their own right but also as a means of critiquing the deficiencies of past regimes negotiating the politics of the present and imagining the shape of the political future In the literature of the Restoration love and politics become entwined in a mutually metaphorical embrace The Amorous Restoration the first book in English devoted to literary and cultural life under the last Bourbon kings considers this relationship in all its richness and many contradictions Long neglected as a drab historical backwater the Restoration emerges here as a vibrant era one rife with sharp cultural and political disagreements and possessed of an especially refined sense of allusion discretion and even humour Drawing on literature journalism political writing life writing and gossip The Amorous Restoration vividly recreates the erotic sensibilities of a pivotal moment in the transition from an amorous old regime to erotic and political modernity
