Inside the O'Briens Lisa Genova, 2015-04-07 A New York Times bestseller A Library Journal Best Books of 2015 Pick A St Louis Post Dispatch Best Books of 2015 Pick A GoodReads Top Ten Fiction Book of 2015 A People Magazine Great Read From New York Times bestselling author and neuroscientist Lisa Genova comes a heartbreaking very human novel Still Alice by Lisa Genova. The author of We Are Not Ourselves that does for Huntington's disease what her debut novel Still Alice did for Alzheimer's. Joe O'Brien is a forty-three year old police officer from the Irish Catholic neighborhood of Charlestown, Massachusetts. A devoted husband, proud father of four children in their twenties, and respected officer, Joe begins experiencing bouts of disorganized thinking, uncharacteristic temper outbursts, and strange involuntary movements. He initially attributes these episodes to the stress of his job, but as these symptoms worsen, he agrees to see a neurologist and is handed a diagnosis that will change his and his family's lives forever: Huntington's disease. Huntington's is a lethal neurodegenerative disease with no treatment and no cure, and each of Joe's four children has a 50 percent chance of inheriting their father's disease. While watching her potential future in her father's escalating symptoms, twenty-one-year-old daughter Katie struggles with the questions this test imposes on her young adult life. As Joe's symptoms worsen and he is eventually stripped of his badge, more Joe struggles to maintain hope and a sense of purpose while Katie and her siblings must find the courage to either live a life at risk or learn their fate. Praised for writing that explores the resilience of the human spirit, San Francisco Chronicle Lisa Genova has once again delivered a novel as powerful and unforgettable as the human insights at its core.

Teaching English Language and Literature 16-19 Furzeen Ahmed, Marcello Giovanelli, Megan Mansworth, Felicity Titjen, 2020-10-28 This book offers both a scholarly and practical overview of an integrated language and literature approach in the 16-19 English classroom. Providing a comprehensive overview of the identity of the subject, it outlines the pedagogical benefits of studying a unified English at post-16 and provides case studies of innovative classroom practice across a range of topics and text types. Including contributions from practising teachers and higher education practitioners with extensive experience of the post-16 classroom and drawing on a range of literature, this book covers the teaching of topics such as Mind style in contemporary fiction, Comparative poetry analysis, Insights from linguistic cohesion, Criticality through creative response. Written to complement the two other Teaching English 16-19 titles in the NATE series, Teaching English Language and Literature 16-19 is the ideal companion for all practising A-level English teachers of all levels of experience.

Understanding Person-Centred Care for Nursing Associates Myles Harris, 2021-01-13 Understanding how to deliver effective person-centred care is vital for a future career as a Nursing Associate. In this book, trainee nursing associates are introduced to the principles of person-centred care with case studies from a variety of healthcare settings and guidance on caring for different patient groups from acute care to long-term and palliative care. This allows TNAs to see how the theory can be directly applied to their daily practice regardless of where they work. The book also covers key issues in relation to providing care such as inclusivity, ethics, legal issues, and health inequalities. Key features: Fully mapped to the new NMC standards of proficiency for nursing associates 2018. Case studies, activities, and other learning features help TNAs understand the theory and apply it to practice Designed around a Nursing Associate course this book demonstrates how person centred care feeds into each core module ABOUT THE SERIES The Understanding Nursing Associate Practice series UNAP is a new collection of books uniquely designed to support trainee Nursing Associates throughout their training and into a professional career

The Loss of Small White Clouds Morgan Batch,2023-08-09 This volume seeks to instigate a discussion about dementia in theatre The discussions in this book borrow from the literature on dementia s representation in other artforms while reflecting on theatre s unique capacity to incorporate multiple artforms in a live context hypermediacy The author examines constructions of diegesis and the use of various performance tools including physical theatre puppetry and postdramatic performance She discusses stage representations of interior experiences of dementia selfhood in dementia the demarcation of those with dementia from those without endings erasure and the pursuit of catharsis placelessness and disruptions of traditional dramatic constructions of time and ultimately performances creatively led by people with dementia The book traces patterns of narrativisation on the stage including common dramaturgical forms settings and character relationships as well as examples that transcend mainstream representation This book is important reading for theatre and performance students scholars and practitioners as well as cultural studies writers engaged in research about narratives of dementia
